EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Tax Avoidance Schemes (Information) Regulations 2004 (S.I. 2004/1864) which prescribe among other things the information to be provided to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") when a person is required to notify arrangements under Part 7 of the Finance Act 2004 (c. 12) ("FA 04") and the time limits in which that information is to be provided.

Regulation 3 inserts regulation 8ZA, which makes provision for the purposes of section 313ZA(3) and (4) of FA 04. Section 313ZA(3) requires promoters of schemes to provide information in relation to clients who have implemented notifiable schemes. Paragraph (1)(a) of regulation 8ZA provides that the period for providing such information is 30 days. Paragraph (1)(b) prescribes the information to be provided. Paragraph (2) provides that the relevant period for the purposes of section 313ZA(4) is each calendar quarter.

Regulation 4 substitutes regulation 8B. Paragraph (1) prescribes that the period after which the higher rate of penalty will apply for the purposes of section 98C(2A) of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (c. 9) after an order has been made under section 306A is ten days from the date of the order. Paragraph (2) provides that the period is also ten days when an order has been made under section 314A as at present.

Regulation 5 inserts regulation 8C, which makes provision for the purposes of section 313C(1) of FA 2004. Section 313C(1) provides for HMRC to require a person suspected of being an introducer, as defined, to provide information about other persons who have provided them with information about a notifiable proposal. Paragraph (1) of regulation 8C specifies that the information to be provided is the name and address of the introducer and the person who has provided the introducer with any information relating to the proposal. Paragraph (2) provides that the period within which the information is to be provided is ten days.
