.....Magistrates' Court

(Code)

Date:

To the defendant:

Address:

.....
.....
.....

You are hereby summoned to appear on.....(date)

at.....[time] before the Magistrates' Court at.....

to answer to an application for a foreign travel order, which application is attached to this summons.

Copied to the applicant:

Justice of the Peace

[Justices' Clerk]

NOTE:

Where the court is satisfied that this summons was served on you within what appears to the court to be a reasonable time before the hearing or adjourned hearing, it may, if you do not attend, issue a warrant for your arrest or proceed in your absence.

If a foreign travel order is made against you, you will be subject to the prohibitions made in it. You will also be subject to the foreign travel notification regulations made under section 86 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, which oblige you to notify the police of any plans you have to travel abroad for a period of 3 days or longer. If details are known to you 7 days before you travel you must inform the police 7 days before you travel. Otherwise you must inform the police no less than 24 hours in advance of travel.

If you are prohibited from travelling to any country outside the United Kingdom (as opposed to a specific country or countries outside the United Kingdom), you must surrender all passport(s) held in your name to a police station specified in the order within the time so specified.

If without reasonable excuse, you do anything you are prohibited from doing by the order, or if you fail to comply with the foreign travel notification regulations made under section 86 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 you shall be liable on conviction for a term not exceeding 5 years.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 2

Rule 2(c)

Foreign Travel Order (under section 114 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003)

.....Magistrates' Court

(Code)

Date:

Defendant:

It is adjudged that the defendant is a qualifying offender by reason of the following:

Offence:

If committed abroad, corresponding offence had the act been done in the UK:

.....

Date of [conviction] [finding] [caution]:

[Court] [Police station]:

And it is adjudged that the defendant's behaviour since the date of the above conviction, finding or caution, makes it necessary to make a foreign travel order under section 114(1) of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 to protect children generally or any particular child from serious sexual harm from him outside the United Kingdom.

Short description of acts, (including date(s)) and further comments:

until (date not more than 5 years from date of order).

And while this order (as renewed from time to time) has effect, the defendant shall be subject to

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules amend the Magistrates' Courts (Foreign Travel Orders) Rules 2004 (S.I. 2004 No.1051) to substitute new forms into Schedules 2 (Summons on application for a Foreign Travel Order) and 3 (Foreign Travel Order) in consequence of amendments to the Sexual Offences Act 2003 made by the Policing and Crime Act 2009 ("the 2009 Act"). The new forms refer to the requirement under the 2009 Act for a person who is subject to a foreign travel order prohibiting travel to all countries outside the UK to surrender his or her passport(s) to the police station within the time limit specified in the order; and reflect that a foreign travel order may now be imposed for a period of up to 5 years.
