The Mobile Homes Act 1983

You will automatically be protected and given certain rights under the Mobile Homes Act 1983 ("the 1983 Act"). These rights affect in particular your security of tenure, the sale of your home and the review of the pitch fee.

Implied terms

2. Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act contains sets of implied terms (Chapter 2 applies in relation to all pitches except those on local authority and county council Gypsy and Traveller sites; Chapter 3 applies to transit pitches on local authority and county council Gypsy and Traveller sites and Chapter 4 applies to permanent pitches on local authority and county council Gypsy and Traveller sites) one set of which will apply automatically to your agreement and cannot be overridden, so long as your agreement continues to be one to which the 1983 Act applies. Express terms

3. The express terms that are set out in Part 3 of this statement will apply to you. If you are not happy with any of these express terms you should discuss them with the site owner, who may agree to change them.

Additional terms

(The following paragraph does not apply to an agreement for a transit pitch on a local authority or county council Gypsy and Traveller site)

4. There are additional terms set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act which you can ask to be included in your agreement. These deal with the following matters:

- (a) the sums payable by the occupier in pursuance of the agreement and the times at which they are to be paid;
- (b) the review at yearly intervals of the sums so payable;
- (c) the provision or improvement of services available on the protected site, and the use by the occupier of such services; and
- (d) the preservation of the amenity of the protected site.

Right to challenge express terms

(The following paragraphs do not apply to an agreement for a transit pitch on a local authority or county council Gypsy and Traveller site)

5. If you enter into the agreement and subsequently become dissatisfied with the express terms of the agreement you can challenge them, but you must do so within six months of the date on which you enter into the agreement or the date you received the written statement, whichever is later. If you wish to challenge your agreement, you are advised to consult a solicitor or citizens advice bureau.

6. You can challenge the express terms by making an application to a residential property tribunal. You can ask for any express terms of the agreement (those set out in Part 3 of this statement) to be changed or deleted.

Sometimes there is a time limit for doing so. More information on applications to the tribunal can be found at www.rpts.gov.uk or from your local Residential Property Tribunal Office.

12. Your site owner can only terminate your agreement on the grounds specified in the implied terms. You cannot be evicted from the site without an order from the court. If you are notified of termination proceedings and you wish to take legal advice, you should do so promptly.

Arbitration

13. You can agree in writing with your site owner to refer a particular dispute to arbitration.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Mobile Homes Act 1983 (“the 1983 Act”) applies to all agreements under which persons are entitled to station a mobile home on a protected site and occupy it as their only or main residence. The 1983 Act provides that before such an agreement is entered into the site owner must give to the proposed occupier of the mobile home a written statement which must include the matters specified in section 1(2)(a) to (d) of the 1983 Act and such other matters which are specified by regulations.

These Regulations specify that the written statement must contain certain information, in addition to that required by section 1(2)(a) to (d) to the 1983 Act, and must be in the form set out in the Schedule.

Part 1 of the Schedule contains information about the occupier’s rights under the agreement.

Part 2 of the Schedule sets out the main provisions of the agreement, name and address, particulars of the land, pitch fee, its review and additional charges.

Part 3 of the Schedule contains any other express terms of the agreement.

These Regulations revoke the Mobile Homes (Written Statement) (England) Regulations 2006.
