(2) Each of the following is an enforcement obligation—

(a) a requirement on the person on whom the notice is served to cease the interception concerned on such day, or within such period, as is specified in the notice,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (b) (where appropriate for achieving such a cessation) a requirement on the person to take within such period as is specified in the notice, or to refrain from taking after the end of such period as is so specified, such steps as are so specified.
- (3) No enforcement obligation is to have effect before the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the day after the day on which the notice is served.
- (4) Where an enforcement obligation is included in a monetary penalty notice under this paragraph, the notice must state what the obligation is and the grounds for including it.

Consultation requirements before service of notices

3.—(1) The Commissioner must proceed in accordance with sub-paragraphs (2) to (7) before serving a monetary penalty notice on a person.

- (2) The Commissioner must serve a notice of intent on the person.

 - (c) provide an indication of the amount of the monetary penalty that the Commissioner proposes to impose and the Commissioner’s grounds for deciding that amount,

- (5) No period specified as mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)(f) or (g) may be less than 21 days beginning with the day after the day on which the notice is served.
- (6) Where the person concerned has requested an oral hearing within the period specified for the purpose in the notice—
 - (a) the Commissioner must arrange such a hearing, and
 - (b) the person may make representations at the hearing about—
 - (i) any matter falling within section 1(1A)(a)(ii), or
 - (ii) any other matter relating to the Commissioner’s proposal which, by virtue of section 17, the person would be unable to raise on an appeal under paragraph 5.
- (7) The Commissioner must consider any representations which have been made by the person concerned in accordance with the notice or sub-paragraph (6).
- (8) Subject to sub-paragraph (9), the Commissioner may not vary a notice of intent.
- (9) The Commissioner may vary a notice of intent by extending the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)(f) or (g).
- (10) Sub-paragraph (8) does not prevent the Commissioner from issuing a new notice of intent instead of varying such a notice.

(11) The Commissioner may cancel a notice of intent.

(12) A variation or cancellation of a notice of intent is effected by serving on the person on whom the notice was served a notice setting out the variation or cancellation.

(13) Subject to sub-paragraph (14), the Commissioner must not serve a monetary penalty notice on a person in respect of an interception if any notice of intent in respect of that interception was served on the person more than 3 months earlier.

(14) The Commissioner may serve a monetary penalty notice on a person where the service of the notice would otherwise be prevented by virtue of sub-paragraph (13) if the Commissioner—

(a) considers it reasonable to do so, and

(b) includes the reasons for doing so in the monetary penalty notice.

(15) If the Commissioner decides not to serve a monetary penalty notice on a person as a result of any representations which have been made by the person in accordance with a notice of intent or sub-paragraph (6), the Commissioner must inform the person of that fact.

Variation or cancellation of notices

4.—(1) The Commissioner may, subject as follows, vary or cancel a monetary penalty notice.

(2) The Commissioner may not vary a monetary penalty notice in a way that is detrimental to the person on whom it was served (whether by increasing the amount of the monetary penalty, by reducing the period specified in the notice as the period within which the penalty must be paid, by imposing a new enforcement obligation or making an existing enforcement obligation effective earlier or otherwise more onerous, or otherwise).

(3) The Commissioner must—

(a) in the case of a variation which reduces the amount of a monetary penalty, repay any excess already paid in accordance with the notice, and

(b) in the case of a cancellation, repay any amount already paid in accordance with the notice.

(4) A variation or cancellation of a monetary penalty notice is effected by serving on the person on whom the monetary penalty notice was served a notice setting out the variation or cancellation.

(5) The Commissioner may not serve another monetary penalty notice on a person in respect of an interception if the Commissioner has cancelled a previous notice served on the person in respect of the same interception.

(6) If the Commissioner refuses a request by a person to vary or cancel a monetary penalty notice which has been served on the person, the Commissioner must inform the person of that fact.

Appeals against notices

5.—(1) A person on whom a monetary penalty notice is served may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against—

(a) the monetary penalty notice or any provision of it, or

(b) any refusal of a request by the person to issue a notice of variation or cancellation in relation to the monetary penalty notice.

(2) Where there is an appeal under sub-paragraph (1)(a) in relation to a monetary penalty notice or any provision of it, any requirement in the notice or (as the case may be) provision concerned which does not relate to the imposition of an enforcement obligation need not be complied with until the appeal is withdrawn or finally determined.

(3) Sub-paragraphs (4) to (6) apply in relation to an appeal under sub-paragraph (1)(a).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (4) The First-tier Tribunal must allow the appeal or substitute such other monetary penalty notice as could have been served by the Commissioner if the Tribunal considers—
 - (a) that the notice concerned is not in accordance with the law, or
 - (b) to the extent that the notice involved an exercise of discretion by the Commissioner, that the Commissioner ought to have exercised the discretion differently.
- (5) In any other case, the First-tier Tribunal must dismiss the appeal.
- (6) The First-tier Tribunal may review any determination of fact on which the notice concerned was based.
- (7) Sub-paragraphs (8) to (10) apply in relation to an appeal under sub-paragraph (1)(b).
- (8) The First-tier Tribunal must direct the Commissioner to issue, on such terms as the Tribunal considers appropriate, a notice of variation or cancellation in relation to the monetary penalty notice if the Tribunal considers that the monetary penalty notice ought to be varied or cancelled on those terms.
- (9) In any other case, the First-tier Tribunal must dismiss the appeal.
- (10) The First-tier Tribunal may review any determination of fact on which the refusal to issue the notice of variation or cancellation was based.

Enforcement of notices

- 6.—(1) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) apply in relation to any penalty payable to the Commissioner by virtue of a monetary penalty notice.
 - (2) In England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the penalty is recoverable—
 - (a) if a county court so orders, as if it were payable under an order of that court,
 - (b) if the High Court so orders, as if it were payable under an order of that court.
 - (3) In Scotland, the penalty is recoverable as if it were payable under an extract registered decree arbitral bearing a warrant for execution issued by the sheriff for any sheriffdom in Scotland.
 - (4) The person on whom a monetary penalty notice containing an enforcement obligation is served must comply with the obligation; and that duty is enforceable by civil proceedings by the Commissioner for an injunction, or for specific performance of a statutory duty under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988(4), or for any other appropriate relief.

Guidance

- 7.—(1) The Commissioner must prepare and issue guidance on how the Commissioner proposes to exercise the Commissioner's functions under section 1(1A) and (1B) and this Schedule.
 - (2) The guidance must, in particular, deal with—

 - (b) the circumstances in which the Commissioner would consider it appropriate to serve a monetary penalty notice,
 - (c) how the Commissioner will determine the amount of the penalty, and
 - (d) the circumstances in which the Commissioner would consider it appropriate to impose an enforcement obligation.
 - (3) The Commissioner may alter or replace the guidance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, made under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972, amend the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act (“the Act”) in order fully to implement provisions of Directive 2002/58/EC on privacy and electronic communications (OJ L 201, 31.7.2002, p.37) and of Directive 95/46/EC on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (OJ L 281, 23.11.1995 p.31) insofar as those provisions are applied by Directive 2002/58/EC.

Section 1(1) of the Act makes it a criminal offence for a person intentionally and without lawful authority to intercept, at any place within the United Kingdom, any communication in the course of its transmission by means of a public postal service or telecommunications system. Regulation 2 of these Regulations gives a new power to the Interception of Communications Commissioner (“the Commissioner”) to serve a monetary penalty notice on a person whom he considers has intercepted without lawful authority, at any place in the United Kingdom, any communication in the course of its transmission by means of a public telecommunications system. The Commissioner may not serve a monetary penalty notice if he considers that the person has committed an offence under section 1(1) of the Act, or if he considers that the interception could be explained by the person’s attempt to act in accordance with an interception warrant. Pursuant to section 1(5) of the Act, conduct that takes place in accordance with an interception warrant has lawful authority.

Sections 3 and 4 of the Act authorise certain kinds of interception without the need for an interception warrant. Section 3(1) of the Act authorises interception of a communication where there are reasonable grounds for believing that both the sender and the recipient of the communication have consented to its interception. Regulation 3 of these Regulations repeals the reference to reasonable grounds for belief, with the effect that the interception will be authorised only where both the sender and recipient have consented to it.

Regulation 2 of these Regulations also inserts into the Act a new Schedule A1 which makes further provision about monetary penalty notices. Part 1 of the Schedule deals with monetary penalty notices. In particular:

- (i) Paragraph 1 sets the maximum penalty (£50,000), the period within which payment may be requested by the Commissioner and the information that is to be included in the monetary penalty notice;

- (ii) Paragraph 2 allows the Commissioner to include one or more enforcement obligations in a monetary penalty notice. These may require the person on whom the notice is served to cease the interception within a specified time;
- (iii) Paragraph 3 requires the Commissioner to serve a notice of intent on a person before he serves a monetary penalty notice. It further sets out the information that is to be included in such a notice and the Commissioner's obligations to deal with representations received in response;
- (iv) Paragraph 4 gives the Commissioner powers to vary or cancel a monetary penalty notice;
- (v) Paragraph 5 establishes the right for a person on whom a monetary penalty notice is served to appeal to the First Tier Tribunal, and sets out the powers of that Tribunal on appeal. The appeal right includes the right to appeal against any refusal by the Commissioner to vary or cancel the monetary penalty notice. Paragraph 5 further sets out the effect that an appeal has on obligations arising under the monetary penalty notice;
- (vi) Paragraph 6 gives the Commissioner powers to recover the penalty or enforce an enforcement obligation through the civil proceedings;
- (vii) Paragraph 7 requires the Commissioner to prepare and issue guidance on these new functions. Part 2 to the Schedule deals with information provisions. In particular:
 - (viii) Paragraph 9 allows the Commissioner to request information from a person in order to assist the Commissioner in deciding whether to serve a notice of intent on that person. It sets out the information that is to be included in the notice and gives the Commissioner the power to cancel the notice or vary time for compliance where an appeal has been lodged;
 - (ix) Paragraph 10 establishes the right for a person on whom an information notice is served to appeal to the First Tier Tribunal, and sets out the powers of the Tribunal on appeal;
 - (x) Paragraph 11 allows the Commissioner to serve a monetary penalty notice on a person who has without reasonable excuse failed to comply with an information notice or who has knowingly or recklessly given false information in response to such a notice. Paragraph 11 gives a maximum penalty (£10,000) and sets out manner in which the penalty may be calculated;
 - (xi) Paragraph 12 requires OFCOM to comply with any reasonable request made by the Commissioner for advice on technical and similar matters relating to electronic communications, where the request arises in connection with the Commissioner's new functions.
