2. Audit-related assurance services.
3. Taxation compliance services.
4. All taxation advisory services not falling within paragraph 3.
5. Internal audit services.
6. All assurance services not falling within paragraphs 1 to 5.
7. All services relating to corporate finance transactions entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by or on behalf of the company or any of its associates not falling within paragraphs 1 to 6.
8. All non-audit services not falling within paragraphs 2 to 7.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Companies (Disclosure of Auditor Remuneration and Liability Limitation Agreements) Regulations 2008 (the “principal Regulations”) provide for large companies to disclose fees receivable by their auditors and their auditors’ associates. The Companies (Disclosure of Auditor Remuneration and Liability Limitation Agreements) (Amendment) Regulations 2011 amend the principal Regulations.

Regulation 5 replaces Schedule 2 to the principal Regulations. The list of types of service in respect of which disclosure has to be made, set out in the substituted Schedule 2A, has been updated to correlate with the revised Ethical Standards published by the Auditing Practices Board of the Financial Reporting Council.

Regulations 3 and 4 make consequential amendments to regulation 5 of the principal Regulations.

Regulation 2 amends Regulation 5(1)(a) of the principal Regulations so as to extend the obligation of disclosure under that provision to remuneration received by any associate of the company’s auditor.

Regulation 1(4) provides that only the accounts of companies for financial years beginning on or after 1st October 2011 are required to be completed in accordance with the changes laid out in these Regulations. However, Regulation 1(5) allows companies to complete accounts relating to financial years beginning before 1st October in accordance with the new Schedule 2A.
