EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules amend the Asylum and Immigration Tribunal (Procedure) Rules 2005 (S.I. 2005/230), which prescribe the procedures to be followed for appeals and applications to the Immigration and Asylum Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal. The main changes are related to the introduction of fees for certain appeals heard in that Chamber.

Rule 4 removes the former option of filing an appeal with the entry clearance officer abroad. To facilitate the operation of fee charging, notice of appeal must be given to the Tribunal.

Rule 5 provides that the notice of appeal must state whether or not the appellant consents to the case being dealt with without a hearing. The notice must be accompanied by an application to the Lord Chancellor to issue a certificate of fee satisfaction (“a certificate”) under the Fees Order.

The amendments made by rule 6 provide that the Tribunal may not accept an appeal where the Lord Chancellor has refused to issue a certificate of fee satisfaction. It also provides that where the Tribunal does not accept a notice of appeal it must take no action only in relation to that particular notice of appeal.

The amendments made by rule 9 give the Tribunal discretion not to hold a hearing in cases where the appellant did not consent to dispensing with a hearing, but has not paid the fee required under the Fees Order for such a hearing.

The amendments made by rule 10 provide that the Tribunal will automatically strike out an appeal when notified by the Lord Chancellor that a certificate has been revoked – for instance where a certificate was issued because payment of a fee was promised, but no fee was then paid. Where the Lord Chancellor revokes the certificate but then issues a new certificate, this rule gives the Tribunal power to reinstate the appeal.

Rule 11 provides the Tribunal with the power to order the respondent to pay the appellant’s costs up to the amount of a fee paid and any fee which the appellant is or may be liable to pay under the Fees Order.

Rule 13 enables the Tribunal to delegate judicial decisions to staff where appropriate.

Rule 14 allows the Tribunal to stipulate other methods of filing and service.
