Fees for appeals

3.—(1) A fee is payable in respect of an appeal to the First-tier Tribunal where the appeal relates to an immigration or asylum matter and the decision against which the appeal is made was taken on or after the coming into force of this Order.

(2) The fee is payable by or in respect of each appellant on the date on which the Notice of Appeal is given.

(3) The fee payable is—

(a) where the appellant consents to the appeal being determined without a hearing, [<sup>F3</sup>£80]; or

(b) where the appellant does not consent to the appeal being determined without a hearing, [<sup>F4</sup>£140].

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), where after making payment in accordance with paragraph (3)(a), the appellant withdraws their consent to the appeal being determined without a hearing, the difference between the amounts specified in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (3) (“the balance”) becomes payable on the withdrawal of that consent.

(5) The balance referred to in paragraph (4) ceases to be payable if the Tribunal decides that the appeal can be justly determined without a hearing.

[<sup>F5</sup>(5A) Where a notice of decision against which the appellant is appealing contains more than one appealable decision, one fee is payable in respect of each appealable decision that is not exempt under article 5].

- I5 Art. 5 in force at 19.12.2011 in accordance with art. 1

Power to defer payment in certain cases

6. The Lord Chancellor may defer payment of a fee where the appeal is brought on the grounds that the removal of the appellant from, or a requirement for the appellant to leave, the United Kingdom would breach the United Kingdom's obligations under either—

- (a) the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees done at Geneva on 28 July 1951 and the Protocol to the Convention; or
- (b) article 21 of Directive 2004/83/EC of the European Parliament and Council of 29 April 2004.

Commencement Information

- I6 Art. 6 in force at 19.12.2011 in accordance with art. 1

Reduction or remission of fees

[<sup>F147</sup>—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Schedule applies for the purpose of ascertaining whether an appellant is entitled to a remission or reduction of a fee specified in this Order.

(2) The Schedule does not apply to an appellant who is not in the United Kingdom on the date on which the Notice of Appeal is given.

(3) A fee specified in this Order may be remitted or reduced where the Lord Chancellor is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances which justify doing so.]

- F14 Art. 7 substituted (20.4.2020) by The First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) Fees (Amendment) Order 2020 (S.I. 2020/314), arts. 1, 2(2)

Certificate of fee satisfaction

- 8.—(1) The Lord Chancellor must issue a certificate of fee satisfaction if satisfied that—
- (a) the appropriate fee payable under article 3 has been paid;
  - (b) in view of an undertaking given by or on behalf of the appellant, payment will be promptly made by BACS or an international money transfer;
  - (c) no fee is payable;
  - (d) payment is to be deferred in accordance with article 6; or
  - (e) the appellant has, at the time a fee would otherwise be payable under article 3, applied for the fee to be reduced or remitted in accordance with article 7.
- (2) The issuing of such a certificate is without prejudice to the power to recover the amount of any payable fee or part of such fee which remains unpaid and unremitted.
- (3) The Lord Chancellor may revoke a certificate of fee satisfaction and if a certificate is revoked, the Tribunal shall be notified accordingly.

Refunds

- 9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) —
- (a) where the fee payable under article 3(3)(b) has been paid but the appeal is determined without a hearing, the difference between the amounts specified in article 3(3)(a) and 3(3)(b) may be refunded; and
  - (b) where a fee has been paid which the Lord Chancellor, if all the circumstances had been known, would have reduced or remitted under [<sup>F15</sup>article 7(3)], the fee or the amount by which the fee would have been reduced, as the case may be, shall be refunded.
- [<sup>F16</sup>(1A) For the purposes of this article an appeal is only “determined without a hearing” if—
- (a) the respondent has consented to, or has not objected to, the matter being decided without a hearing; or
  - (b) the First-tier Tribunal has considered that it can justly determine the matter without a hearing in accordance with rule 25(1)(g) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) Rules 2014.]
- (2) No refund will be made under this article unless the appellant applies in writing to the Lord Chancellor within 6 months of the date the fee becomes payable.
- (3) The Lord Chancellor may extend the period of 6 months mentioned in paragraph (2) if the Lord Chancellor considers there is a good reason for the application being made after the end of the period of 6 months.

Fee remission

2. If a party satisfies the disposable capital test, the amount of any fee remission is calculated by applying the gross monthly income test.

Disposable capital test

[<sup>F21</sup>Disposable capital test

3. Subject to paragraph 4, a party satisfies the disposable capital test if the fee payable by the party and for which an application for remission is made is—

- (a) up to and including £1,420 and the party’s disposable capital is less than £4,250;
- (b) £1,421 to £5,000 and the party’s disposal capital is less than three times the amount of the fee payable;
- (c) £5,001 or more and the party’s disposable capital is less than £16,000.]

Disposable capital

5.—[

<sup>F24</sup>(1)] Subject to paragraph 14, disposable capital is the value of [<sup>F25</sup>any savings and investments] belonging to the party on the date on which the application for remission is made, unless it is treated as income by this Order, or it is disregarded as excluded disposable capital.

[<sup>F26</sup>(2) In sub-paragraph (1), reference to “savings and investments” includes, but is not limited to—

- (a) bonds;

- (b) stocks and shares; and
- (c) the value of any land or property.]

- F24 Sch. para. 5 renumbered as Sch. para. 5(1) (27.11.2023) by The Courts and Tribunals (Fee Remissions and Miscellaneous Amendments) Order 2023 (S.I. 2023/1094), arts. 1(2), 5(5)(a) (with art. 6)
- F25 Words in Sch. para. 5(1) substituted (27.11.2023) by The Courts and Tribunals (Fee Remissions and Miscellaneous Amendments) Order 2023 (S.I. 2023/1094), arts. 1(2), 5(5)(b) (with art. 6)
- F26 Sch. para. 5(2) inserted (27.11.2023) by The Courts and Tribunals (Fee Remissions and Miscellaneous Amendments) Order 2023 (S.I. 2023/1094), arts. 1(2), 5(5)(c) (with art. 6)

Disposable capital – non-money resources

6. The value of [<sup>F27</sup>any savings and investments that do] not consist of money is calculated as the amount which that resource would realise if sold, less—

- (a) 10% of the sale value; and
- (b) the amount of any borrowing secured against that resource that would be repayable on sale.

- F27 Words in Sch. para. 6 substituted (27.11.2023) by The Courts and Tribunals (Fee Remissions and Miscellaneous Amendments) Order 2023 (S.I. 2023/1094), arts. 1(2), 5(6) (with art. 6)

[<sup>F28</sup>Disposable Capital - resources held outside the United Kingdom

7.—(1) Capital resources in a country outside the United Kingdom count towards disposable capital.

(2) If there is no prohibition in that country against the transfer of a resource into the United Kingdom, the value of that resource is the amount that resource would realise if sold to a buyer in the United Kingdom.

(3) If there is a prohibition in that country against the transfer of a resource into the United Kingdom, the value of that resource is the amount which that resource would realise if sold in that country, in accordance with paragraph 6.]

Disposable capital – foreign currency resources

8. Where disposable capital is held in currency other than sterling, the cost of any banking charge or commission that would be payable if that amount were converted into sterling, is deducted from its value.

Disposable capital – jointly owned resources

9. Where [<sup>F29</sup>any savings and investments are] owned jointly or in common, there is a presumption that the resource is owned in equal shares, unless evidence to the contrary is produced.

Gross monthly income test

[<sup>F34</sup>Remission of fees - gross monthly income

11.—(1) Subject to paragraphs 11A and 12, if a party satisfies the disposable capital test, no fee is payable under this Order if, at the time when the fee would otherwise be payable, the party's gross monthly income exceeds the applicable threshold.

(2) The applicable threshold is—

- (a) £1,420, for a party that is single and has no children;
- (b) £2,130, for a party that is part of a couple and has no children; or
- (c) as otherwise calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (3).

(3) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the applicable threshold is determined by taking the following steps—

(Step Identify the number of children aged 13 or below and multiply this number by £425.

1)

(Step Identify the number of children aged 14 or over and multiply this number by £710.

2)

(Step Add together the amounts calculated at Step 1 and Step 2.

3)

(Step Add £1,420 to the amount calculated at Step 3.

4) The result is the applicable threshold for a party that is single and has children.

(Step If a party is part of a couple, take this additional step.

5) Add £710 to the amount calculated at Step 4.

The result is the applicable threshold for a party that is part of a couple and has children.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (6), if a party's gross monthly income exceeds the applicable threshold, that party must pay an amount towards the fee payable to which the application for remission relates, which is determined in accordance with sub-paragraph (5).

(5) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the amount payable is determined as follows—

(Step Deduct the applicable threshold from the party's gross monthly income.

1) The amount calculated is the "excess income".

(Step Apply the rates specified in the second column of the Table to the parts of the party's

2) excess income specified in the corresponding row of the first column.

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2023.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) Fees Order 2011. (See end of Document for details)

(Step Add together the amounts calculated at Step 2 (if there are two or more such amounts).

3) Subject to sub-paragraph (6), the result is the amount payable.

Table

Part of excess income	Rate
Up to and including £1,000	50%
£1,001 to £2,000	70%
£2,001 to £3,000	90%

(6) No party is required to pay an amount that is more than the fee payable for which the application for remission has been made, if no remission had been granted.]

[<sup>F35</sup>Gross monthly income— passporting benefits

11A.—(1) If a party satisfies the disposable capital test, no fee is payable under this Order if, at the time when the fee would otherwise be payable, the party is in receipt of any passporting benefits.

(2) The following are passporting benefits—

- (a) income-based Jobseeker’s Allowance;
- (b) income-related Employment and Support Allowance;
- (c) income support;
- (d) pension credit (Guarantee Credit); and
- (e) universal credit with additional gross annual earnings of less than £6,000.]

12. No remission is available if a party’s gross monthly income exceeds the applicable threshold determined in accordance with paragraph 11(2), plus the sum of £3,000.]

F36 Sch. para. 12 substituted (27.11.2023) by The Courts and Tribunals \(Fee Remissions and Miscellaneous Amendments\) Order 2023 \(S.I. 2023/1094\), arts. 1(2), 5(12) (with art. 6)

[<sup>F37</sup>Gross monthly income

13.—(1) Subject to paragraph 14, “gross monthly income” means the total sum of—

- (a) the lower of—
  - (i) the gross amount that has been earned by the party in the month immediately preceding that in which the application for remission is made; or
  - (ii) the average of the gross amount that has been earned by the party in the three months immediately preceding that in which the application for remission is made, and

- (b) the gross amount received by the party from any other source in the month immediately preceding that in which the application for remission is made, other than receipt of any of the excluded benefits.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), earnings from a trade, business or gainful occupation other than an occupation at a wage or salary are calculated as the lower of—
  - (a) the party’s net profits for the month preceding that in which the application for remission is made; or
  - (b) the average of the party’s net profits for the three months preceding that in which the application for remission is made.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2), “net profits” means the profits which have accrued to the party less all sums necessarily expended to earn those profits.]

Resources and income treated as the party’s resources and income

14.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the disposable capital and gross monthly income of a partner of a party is to be treated as disposable capital and gross monthly income of the party.

(2) Where the partner of a party has a contrary interest to the party in the matter to which the fee relates, the disposable capital and gross monthly income of that partner, if any, is not treated as the disposable capital and gross monthly income of the party.

Application for remission of a fee

15.—(1) An application for remission of a fee must be made at the time when the fee would otherwise be payable.

(2) Where an application for remission of a fee is made, the party must—

- (a) indicate the fee to which the application relates;
- (b) declare the amount of their disposable capital; and
- (c) provide documentary evidence of their gross monthly income and the number of children relevant for the purposes of [F38 paragraph 11].

(3) Where an application for remission of a fee is made on F39... the date on which a fee is payable, the date for payment of the fee is disapplied.

(4) Where an application for remission is refused, or if reduction of a fee is granted, the amount of the fee which remains unremitted must be paid within the period notified in writing to the party.

[F40(5) The Lord Chancellor may by written notice request such additional information or evidence as is required to assess the party’s entitlement to fee remission under this Order, and the period specified by such notice must not be less than 7 days, beginning with the day after the date on which the notice is sent.

(6) An application for remission of a fee may be treated as abandoned and no further action taken, if a party fails to provide the information requested under sub-paragraph (5) within the period specified by that notice, or such other extended period as may be agreed in writing at the Lord Chancellor’s discretion.]

Refunds

16.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), where a party pays a fee at a time when that party would have been entitled to a remission if they had provided the documentary evidence required by paragraph 15, the fee, or the amount by which the fee would have been reduced as the case may be, must be refunded if documentary evidence relating to the time when the fee became payable is provided at a later date.

(2) No refund shall be made under this paragraph unless the party who paid the fee applies within 3 months of the date on which the fee was paid.

(3) The Lord Chancellor may extend the period of 3 months mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) if the Lord Chancellor considers that there is a good reason for a refund being made after the end of the period of 3 months.

Vexatious litigants

17.—(1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) a restraint order is in force against a party; and
- (b) that party makes an application for permission to—
  - (i) issue proceedings or take a step in proceedings as required by the restraint order;
  - (ii) apply for amendment or discharge of the order; or
  - (iii) appeal the order.

(2) The fee prescribed by this Order for the application is payable in full.

(3) If the party is granted permission, they are to be refunded the difference between—

- (a) the fee paid; and
- (b) the fee that would have been payable if this Schedule had been applied without reference to this paragraph.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order introduces fees for appeals heard in the Immigration and Asylum Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal. The fee for each person, where they consent to the appeal being determined without a hearing, is £80. Where they do not consent to the appeal being determined without a hearing, the fee is £140 per person. The Order also provides for fees not to be payable for certain types of appeal, and for fees to be deferred, reduced, remitted or refunded in certain circumstances.

An Impact Assessment has been prepared and can be viewed alongside the Explanatory Memorandum for this Order on the website www.legislation.gov.uk.
