INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (General Capital Increase) Order 2011

Made - - - - 12th December 2011

Coming into force in accordance with Article 1

This Order is made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 11 of the International Development Act 2002 (“the Act”)(1).

Section 11 of the Act provides that where the Government of the United Kingdom becomes bound to make a relevant payment to a multilateral development bank the Secretary of State may make the relevant payment and other associated payments specified in section 11(3).

“Relevant payment” in relation to such a bank includes a further payment to the bank required to be made by its members under any arrangements beyond the initial subscription or other initial contribution to the capital stock of the bank.

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development referred to in this Order comes within the definition, in section 11(2) of the Act, of a “multilateral development bank”.

In accordance with section 11(4) of the Act, this Order is made with the approval of the Treasury.

In accordance with section 11(5) of the Act, a draft of this Order has been laid before the House of Commons and approved by resolution of that House.

Accordingly, the Secretary of State for International Development makes the following Order:

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order approves the payment to the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development Bank (“the Bank”) of a subscription not exceeding in the aggregate the equivalent of 137,972,662.20 United States Dollars to the increased authorised capital stock of the Bank. This subscription will be made pursuant to arrangements made with the Bank in accordance with Resolution No 613 adopted by the Board of Governors of the Bank on 16th March 2011 (“the Resolution”). The Order further provides that the Secretary of State may make payments to maintain the value of the subscription to the increased authorised capital stock. It also provides that the Secretary of State may make payments to redeem any non-interest-bearing and non-negotiable notes that may be issued by the Secretary of State in payment of this subscription.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.

A copy of the Resolution may be obtained by application to the Department for International Development, 1 Palace Street, London SW1E 5HE.
