- and who require individual pupil information for that purpose⁽⁵⁾.”

20th May 2013

Michael Gove
Secretary of State
Department for Education

(5) For the purposes of these Regulations, ‘well-being’ has the meaning referred to in sections 332E and 507B of the Education Act 1996 in relation to those sections. Section 332E was inserted by section 1 of the Special Educational Needs (Information) Act 2008 (c. 11) and section 507B was inserted by section 6(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (c. 40).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make amendments to regulation 3 of the Education (Individual Pupil Information) (Prescribed Persons) (England) Regulations 2009 (“the 2009 Regulations”), and come into force on 28th June 2013.

Regulation 3 of the 2009 Regulations prescribes persons and categories of person to whom individual pupil information may be provided. It is amended to omit the reference to the British Educational Communications and Technology Agency (Becta); to prescribe various bodies in respect of schools designated as having a religious character; and to prescribe a category of person carrying out specified activities and who require individual pupil information for the purpose of promoting the education or well-being of children in England.

No impact assessment has been produced for this instrument because no significant impact on business, civil society organisations or the public sector is foreseen.
