
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2013 No. 1616

The Coroners (Inquests) Rules 2013

PART 3

Disclosure

Restrictions on disclosure

15. A coroner may refuse to provide a document or a copy of a document requested under rule 13 where—

- (a) there is a statutory or legal prohibition on disclosure;
- (b) the consent of any author or copyright owner cannot reasonably be obtained;
- (c) the request is unreasonable;
- (d) the document relates to contemplated or commenced criminal proceedings; or
- (e) the coroner considers the document irrelevant to the investigation.