PROCEDURE IN ADJUDICATION PROCEEDINGS

PART 2

PROCEDURE RELATING TO APPEALS

Consolidation of proceedings

14.—(1) Where there are pending two or more appeals and at any time it appears to an adjudicator that—

- (a) some common question of law or fact arises in both or all appeals; or
- (b) for some other reason it is desirable to make an order under this paragraph, the adjudicator may order that both or all of the appeals, or those specified in the order, are to be considered together and may give such consequential directions as may appear to the adjudicator to be necessary.

(2) An order must not be made under this paragraph unless all parties concerned have been given an opportunity of making representations against the making of the order.
