EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Crime and Courts Act 2013 (“the Act”) creates the National Crime Agency. Section 14(1) of the Act gives a power to the Secretary of State to provide for the establishment, maintenance and operation of procedures for the determination from time to time of the rates of pay and allowances to be applied to NCA officers who have been designated with one or more powers under section 10(1) of the Act. These Regulations provide that before determining rates of pay and allowances for officers, of a lower grade than Deputy Director, who have been so designated, the Secretary of State must refer the matter to the National Crime Agency Remuneration Review Body and consider its report. The Regulations create the National Crime Agency Remuneration Review Body; make provisions relating to its constitution and governance; and require it to produce a report in relation to any matter referred to it.
