2013 No. 2064

The European Parliamentary Elections
(Returning Officers) Order 2013

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the European Parliamentary Elections (Returning Officers) Order 2013 and shall come into force on the day after the day on which it is made.

(2) In this Order a reference to an electoral region or constituency is a reference to that region or constituency as it is for the time being.

Revocation and savings

2. The European Parliamentary Elections (Returning Officers) Order 2008(1) is revoked.

Returning Officers in England

3. The designated returning officer at a European Parliamentary election for the electoral region in England (including the combined region(2)) specified in the left-hand column of the Schedule to this Order shall be the person who is the acting returning officer(3) at a parliamentary election for the constituency specified in the right-hand column of the Schedule.

Returning Officer for Wales

4. The designated returning officer at a European Parliamentary election for the electoral region of Wales shall be the person who is the acting returning officer at a parliamentary election for the Preseli Pembrokeshire constituency.

Returning Officer for Scotland

5. The designated returning officer at a European Parliamentary election for the electoral region of Scotland shall be the person who is the returning officer(4) at a parliamentary election for the Falkirk County constituency.

(1) S.I. 2008/1914.

(2) By virtue of the European Parliamentary Elections (Combined Region and Campaign Expenditure) (United Kingdom and Gibraltar) Order 2004 (S.I. 2004/366), the South West electoral region was combined with Gibraltar to form the “combined region”.

(3) “Acting returning officer” is defined in section 28(1) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2). Section 28(1)(a) provides that in a constituency in England for which the chairman of a district council or the mayor or chairman of a London borough is the returning officer at a parliamentary election by virtue of section 24(1) of that Act, the electoral registration officer appointed by that council is the acting returning officer. Section 28(1)(aa) of that Act provides that in a constituency in Wales for which the chairman of a county or county borough council is the returning officer by virtue of section 24(1), the electoral registration officer appointed by that council is the acting returning officer. Section 28(1)(b) provides that in the case of any other constituency the acting returning officer is such electoral registration officer as may be designated in an order made by Secretary of State.

(4) Section 25 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2) makes provision for returning officers at parliamentary elections in Scotland.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.
