EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Council Tax (Additional Provisions for Discount Disregards) Regulations 1992 (“the 1992 Regulations”) prescribe requirements which must be fulfilled by care workers and various persons of other descriptions in order for them to be disregarded for the purposes of council tax discounts under section 11 of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 (“the 1992 Act”). Under section 11 of the 1992 Act council tax discounts apply to properties where there are two or more residents and each of them except one falls to be disregarded and where there are one or more residents and each of them falls to be disregarded.

These Regulations amend the requirements which must be fulfilled by care workers under the 1992 Regulations so that care workers providing care to a person who is entitled to an attendance allowance at any rate or the highest or middle rate of the care component of a disability living allowance under the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 fulfil the requirements necessary to be disregarded for the purposes of section 11 of the 1992 Act.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private, public or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
