EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes amendments to the Immigration and Nationality (Fees) Order 2011, which are consequential upon provisions in relation to biometrics set out at sections 8 - 14 of the Immigration Act 2014. The latter provisions enable the Secretary of State to require individuals to provide biometric information when making certain applications or claims in connection with immigration or nationality. This Order enables a fee to be charged for the process of taking a record of such information. The fee itself will be specified in separate Regulations.

A full impact assessment has not been prepared as this instrument will have no impact on the costs of business or the voluntary sector.
