PART 4

Pension accounts

CHAPTER 4

Deferred member's account

Treatment of deferred member's account on return to pensionable service

37.—(1) When a deferred member re-enters pensionable service not later than 5 years after the date on which a period of earlier service ceased—

- (a) the deferred member's account must be closed and it must be treated as if it were never established;
- (b) the active member's account must be re-established; and
- (c) entries must be made in the active member's account as if, during the period in which the deferred member's account was open, the member—
 - (i) was in pensionable service; but
 - (ii) received no pensionable earnings.

(2) When a deferred member re-enters pensionable service more than 5 years after the date on which a period of earlier service ceased—

- (a) the deferred member's account must remain open; and
- (b) an active member's account must be established from the first day for the new period of pensionable service.
