Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the National Savings Stock Register Regulations 1976 to make clear that there is no obligation on the Director of Savings to describe a person holding stock in the register as a trustee where the stock in question is not stock that is capable of being held on trust.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no significant impact on the costs of business or the voluntary sector is foreseen.
