(a) 2012 c. 10.
(b) 2007 c. 29.

CILEx authorises to carry on a reserved legal activity within the meaning of the Legal Services Act 2007 (c.29) (“the 2007 Act”) as regulated persons to whom the ban will apply.

The ban was introduced by section 56 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c.10). Section 57 of that Act requires relevant regulators to have arrangements in place to monitor and enforce the ban. Section 59(1) of the Act specifies both the regulators who are required to monitor and enforce the ban and the regulated persons who are subject to it. Section 59(1) also enables the Lord Chancellor, by regulations, to specify additional regulators and regulated persons to whom the relevant provisions of the 2012 Act will apply.

CILEx is designated as an approved regulator in relation to the exercise of a right of audience and the conduct of litigation by virtue, respectively, of Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Legal Services Act 2007 (c.29) and the Legal Services Act 2007 (Approved Regulators) Order 2011 (SI 2011/1118). These regulations have been made in consequence of the fact that Chartered Legal Executives may now conduct litigation and exercise related rights of audience independently.
