“Determining pensionable pay in certain cases

11.—(1) Where an award is to be calculated in respect of a person who is not, or was not, a member of the 1992 Scheme or the 2006 Scheme, the definition of “pensionable pay” shall be construed in accordance with—

- (a) rule G1 of the 1992 Scheme in the case of a person who elected not to pay pension contributions under rule G3 of that Scheme;
- (b) rule 1 of Part 11 of the 2006 Scheme in the case of a person who elected not to pay pension contributions under rule 5 of Part 2 of that Scheme;
- (c) rule 1 of Part 11 of the 2006 Scheme, where an election had been made at different times under both schemes.

(2) Where, in accordance with paragraph (1), the definition of pensionable pay is to be construed in the case of a person in accordance with the 1992 Scheme, his award shall be calculated on the basis of the pay which would have been his average pensionable pay if he had not made an election.

(3) Where, in accordance with paragraph (1), the definition of pensionable pay is to be construed in the case of a person in accordance with the 2006 Scheme, his award shall be calculated on the basis of the pay which would have been his final pensionable pay if he had not made an election.

(4) For the purposes of calculating a retained firefighter’s pensionable pay (whether or not that person is or was a member of the 2006 Scheme), a fire and rescue authority shall determine the period of the person’s service from their records.

(5) Where an authority are not able to determine the period of the person’s service from their records, the person, or any other person entitled to an award under this Scheme, may provide the authority with documents to assist them to determine the person’s period of service.

(6) Where an authority are not able to determine the period of the person’s service and the authority does not hold records of that person’s pay for that period, and the necessary documents cannot be provided in accordance with paragraph (5), the authority may estimate the person’s pensionable pay for that period from the records which they hold and may in particular estimate this on the basis of the average of recent pay data for retained firefighters at the same station or stations at that at which the person was based for the relevant period.”.

Amendments to Part 2 (injury awards and duty-related compensation)

2.—(1) Part 2 is amended as follows.

(2) In rule 2 (part-time, retained and volunteer firefighters)—
