EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Policy Development Grants Scheme 2006 (the “Scheme”), set out in the Schedule to the Elections (Policy Development Grants Scheme) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/602), as amended by the Elections (Policy Development Grants Scheme) (Amendment) Order 2014 (S.I. 2014/556). This Order makes provision for the year running from 1st April 2015 to 31st March 2016 and subsequent years.

As a consequence of the referendum on the independence of Scotland on 18 September 2014 and the introduction of individual electoral registration, the annual canvass in Scotland, which would normally have concluded with the publication of revised electoral registers by 1st December 2014, was postponed by the Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013 (Transitional Provisions) Order 2013 (S.I. 2013/3197). The figures for the number of people on the register on 1st December 2014 would, but for this Order, be used to determine the appropriate allocations of policy development grants. As the revised register was not published by that date in Scotland, the Order substitutes the number of electors on the register on 2nd March 2015.

Under section 12 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (the “2000 Act”) the Electoral Commission is required to keep under review the terms of the Scheme and is required to make recommendations to the Lord President of the Council for any variations to the Scheme which they consider appropriate. The UK Independence Party returned its second member to Parliament following the by-election in Rochester and Strood, held on 20 November 2014. As a consequence of this the UK Independence Party became eligible for a policy development grant under section 12 of the 2000 Act. The Electoral Commission accordingly reviewed the Scheme and recommended to the Lord President of the Council that the Scheme be varied to include the UK Independence Party as an eligible party to the scheme, with the allocation of the UK Independence Party being determined on the same basis as the Conservative, Liberal Democrat and Labour parties. This Order implements that recommendation.
