Conditions for compensation measures

33. Where a competent authority considers it necessary to impose an adaptation period or aptitude test, it must inform the applicant of—

- (a) the level of professional qualification required in the United Kingdom and the level of qualification held by the applicant in accordance with the classification set out in regulation 27; and
- (b) the substantial differences referred to in regulation 32(2) and (3) and the reasons for which those differences cannot be compensated by the knowledge, skills and competence acquired in the course of professional experience or lifelong learning formally validated by a relevant body.
