2015 No. 25

The Ministry of Defence Police (Conduct etc.) Regulations 2015

PART 2

General

Legal and other representation for the relevant authority

11.—(1) The relevant authority may be represented at misconduct proceedings or a special case hearing or an appeal meeting by—

- (a) an MDP officer; or
- (b) at a misconduct hearing or a special case hearing only, a relevant lawyer (whether or not the officer concerned chooses to be legally represented).

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the relevant authority may appoint a person to advise the person or persons conducting the misconduct proceedings or special case hearing or appeal meeting.

(3) At a misconduct meeting or an appeal meeting, the person appointed under paragraph (2) shall not be a relevant lawyer.
