2015 No. 421

The Magistrates' Courts (Injunctions: Gang-related Violence) Rules 2015

Applications for which court's consent is required

14.—(1) Where the consent of the court is required by section 42(6), or paragraph 10(4) or 15(4) of Schedule 5A, for the making of a further application, the application for consent must include—

- (a) confirmation of the date on which, and the court by which, the previous application was dismissed; and
- (b) a statement of the reasons why consent should be given.

(2) Such consent—

- (a) may be given by a court comprising a single justice; but
- (b) may not be refused without the applicant having been given an opportunity to make oral representations.
