Regulation 5 sets out what information must be provided in an application for entry in the register and applies the regulations to applications for amendment of an entry. Regulation 6 provides for the determination of applications and notifying applicants of that determination. Regulation 7 makes provision for the content of registers. Regulation 8 makes provision for the removal of entries from the register, either at the request of the registered individual or association or if an authority considers that a registered individual or association is no longer eligible.
