2016 No. 1105

The Pressure Equipment (Safety) Regulations 2016

PART 5

Market surveillance and enforcement

Compensation

86.—(1) When an enforcing authority other than the Health and Safety Executive, the Health and Safety Executive for Northern Ireland or the Office for Nuclear Regulation serves a relevant notice in respect of pressure equipment or an assembly, that authority is liable to pay compensation to a person having an interest in the equipment or assembly for any loss or damage suffered by reason of the notice if both of the conditions in paragraph (2) are met.

(2) The conditions are that—

- (a) the pressure equipment or assembly in respect of which the relevant notice was served neither—
  - (i) presents a risk; nor
  - (ii) contravenes any requirement of these Regulations; and
- (b) the relevant notice was not served because of neglect or default by a relevant economic operator.

(3) In this regulation, “relevant notice” means a suspension, withdrawal or recall notice as referred to in regulation 84(5)(b).
