(9) The Commissioners are also to refund a contributions equivalent premium if they are satisfied that—

- (a) where it was paid in the circumstances mentioned in article 3(5)(a), (b) or (d), the relevant member has died, without leaving a widow, widower or surviving civil partner, on or before the later of the days mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) and (b); or

(10) In paragraph (9) “section 9(2B) rights” has the meaning given in regulation 2(1) of the Occupational Pension Schemes (Schemes that were Contracted-out) (No. 2) Regulations 2015(24) (interpretation).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision for the payment of contributions equivalent premiums (“CEP”) following the ending of contracting-out.

The Pensions Act 2014 (c.19) creates a new state pension for people reaching pensionable age after 6th April 2016. The new state pension replaces the current state pension which has two components – the basic state pension and the additional state pension. Prior to 6th April 2016 members of occupational pension schemes could be contracted-out of the additional state pension.

Under section 55 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (c.48), a member who had been contracted out of the additional state pension could be bought back into the additional state pension via payment of a CEP if they had less than 2 years’ pensionable service when they died or left the scheme or when the scheme wound up or ceased to be contracted-out. Subject to certain exceptions, schemes were required to pay the CEP in respect of such members if they had no accrued rights in the scheme at that point.

Article 3 makes provision in relation to the payment of CEPs in respect of those members who are in contracted-out employment immediately before the ending of contracting-out on 6th April 2016. Under article 3, CEPs may be paid if the scheme subsequently begins to be wound up or if the member dies or leaves the scheme prior to completing 2 years’ service. CEPs are required to be paid in these circumstances if the member has no accrued rights in the scheme at that point.

Article 4 makes supplementary provision in relation to practical aspects of CEP payments made under article 3, such as timing for notification and payment and refunds. These mirror provisions made for CEP payments which arise under section 55 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993.

Article 5 amends the Pensions Act 2014 (Savings) Order 2015 (S.I.2015/1502), making clear that sections 55 to 68 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 are saved insofar as necessary for action to be taken in relation to the payment of a CEP where the criteria for payment were satisfied before the ending of contracting out. Sections 56 to 68 are additionally saved with modifications for the purposes of CEPs which are payable as a result of article 3 of this Order.

An assessment of the impact of this legislation has been made and is available in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament and from the Better Regulation Unit of the Department for Work and Pensions, 2D Caxton House, Tothill Street, London SW1H 9NA.
