2016 No. 475

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION,
ENGLAND AND WALES
FLOOD RISK MANAGEMENT,
ENGLAND AND WALES

The Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 2016

Made - - - - 24th March 2016
Coming into force - - 6th April 2016

These Regulations are made by the Secretary of State in relation to England and the Welsh Ministers in relation to Wales, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 61 and 90 of, and Schedule 8 to, the Water Act 2014⁽¹⁾.

In accordance with section 61(5) of the Water Act 2014, the Secretary of State and the Welsh Ministers have consulted—

- (a) the Environment Agency;
- (b) the Natural Resources Body for Wales;
- (c) such bodies or persons appearing to them to be representative of the interests of local government, industry, agriculture and small businesses respectively as they consider appropriate;
- (d) such other bodies or persons as they consider appropriate.

In accordance with section 61(3) of that Act, the Secretary of State and the Welsh Ministers have had regard to the desirability of reducing burdens by ensuring that so far as is reasonably practicable any system established by regulations under that section is combined with, or is consistent with, systems for regulating activities or other matters that cause pollution.

A draft of this instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament and by the National Assembly for Wales pursuant to sections 62(7) and (8) and 90(3) of the Water Act 2014.

(1) 2014 c. 21. Section 61(9) contains the definition of “the Minister”.

Citation, commencement, extent, application and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 2016.

Transitional provision: existing consents

31.—(1) On the coming into force of these Regulations and subject to paragraph (2), an existing consent relating to a flood risk activity (as defined in the principal Regulations)—

- (a) becomes an environmental permit under the principal Regulations, and
- (b) that permit has effect subject to any conditions that applied to the existing consent immediately before the coming into force of these Regulations.

(2) Where an existing consent relates to an excluded or exempt flood risk activity (as defined in the principal Regulations)—

- (a) the existing consent does not become an environmental permit and ceases to have effect;
- (b) the conditions in paragraph 5B(b) of Schedule 2 to the principal Regulations as to registration do not apply; and
- (c) the duties in respect of an exempt flood risk activity in paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 to the principal Regulations do not apply.

(3) In this regulation, “existing consent” means a consent which—

- (a) is issued under section 109 of the 1991 Act or under any byelaw made by the regulator under section 210(1) of, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 25 to, that Act⁽⁷⁾; and
- (b) is in force immediately before the coming into force of these Regulations.

Transitional provision: applications for consent under the 1991 Act

32.—(1) Where an existing application in respect of a flood risk activity (as defined in the principal Regulations) has not been determined under the 1991 Act before the coming into force of these Regulations and the activity is not an exempt or excluded flood risk activity (as defined in the principal Regulations), the application is taken to have been made under the principal Regulations and paragraphs (2) and (3) apply in respect of the application.

(7) Section 210(1) was amended by S.I. 2013/755. Paragraph 5 of Schedule 25 was amended by the Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006 (c.16), section 100(1) and (2), the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009, section 84 and Schedule 11, paragraph 3, the Flood and Water Management Act 2010 (c.29), Schedule 2, paragraph 49 and S.I. 2013/755.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2017.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 2016. (See end of Document for details)

(2) The application is taken to have been made on the date on which the application was made under the 1991 Act.

(3) Anything done under the 1991 Act in relation to the determination of the application before the coming into force of these Regulations is taken to have been done under the principal Regulations.

(4) Where an existing application in respect of a flood risk activity has not been determined under the 1991 Act and the activity is an exempt or excluded flood risk activity (as defined in the principal Regulations), the application is to be disregarded on the coming into force of these Regulations.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation, an “existing application” means an application for consent made before the coming into force of these Regulations under section 109 of the 1991 Act or under any byelaw made by the regulator under section 210(1) of, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 25 to, that Act.

Transitional provision: existing notices

33.—(1) A notice served under a byelaw before the coming into force of these Regulations is taken to be an enforcement notice under the principal Regulations.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), “byelaw” means a byelaw—

- (a) made by the regulator under section 210(1) of and paragraph 5 of Schedule 25 to the 1991 Act; and
- (b) under which a consent may be issued to an applicant.

Saving provision: arbitration

34. Section 110(4) of the 1991 Act⁽⁸⁾ continues to apply in respect of any question referred under that provision to arbitration or to the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers⁽⁹⁾ before the coming into force of these Regulations.

Rory Stewart
Parliamentary Under Secretary of State
Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs
Leslie Griffiths
Minister for Communities and Tackling Poverty
Signed on behalf of Minister for Natural Resources, One of the Welsh Ministers

⁽⁸⁾ Section 110(4) was amended by the Environment Act 1995 (c.25), Schedule 22, paragraphs 128 and 147(1) and (2).

⁽⁹⁾ The functions of the Secretary of State under section 110(4) of the 1991 Act, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, were transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672), article 2(a) and Schedule 1. The functions of the National Assembly for Wales were transferred to the Welsh Ministers by the Government of Wales Act 2006 (c.32), Schedule 11, paragraph 30.

PART 2

Subordinate legislation

4. Any requirement of a byelaw made by the regulator before 6th April 2016 under section 210(1) of, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 25 to, the 1991 Act⁽¹⁷⁾ for a person to obtain the consent of the regulator ceases to apply.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/675) (“the EPRs”) in order to extend the requirement for an environmental permit to flood risk activities.

Regulation 3 amends the EPRs so as to provide for relevant definitions. In particular the term “flood risk activity” is defined by reference to a new Schedule 23ZA to the EPRs (inserted by Schedule 2 to these Regulations).

Regulation 4 amends regulation 5 of the EPRs (exempt facilities) to provide for exempt flood risk activities. Regulations 5 to 7 amend definitions in the EPRs in order to bring flood risk activities within the class of operations that require an environmental permit.

Regulation 8 substitutes a new regulation 15 in the EPRs in connection with provision for permit applications to be granted subject to conditions relating to ongoing maintenance or access requirements by the regulator. Regulations 9 and 10 extend to flood risk activities current flexibilities in the EPRs concerning the grant by the regulator of a permit covering various activities by a single operator.

Regulations 11 to 13 extend the current provisions in the EPRs on variation, transfer and surrender of environmental permits so that they provide for flood risk activities. Regulation 14 make provision for appeals in relation to permits authorising flood risk activities. Regulation 15 adds flood risk activities to the list of specific provisions applying to environmental permits, set out in regulation 35 of the EPRs.

Regulations 16 to 20 extend the current provisions in the EPRs on enforcement and offences relating to permits so that they provide for flood risk activities. Regulation 21 gives the regulator power to arrange for steps to be taken to remove a risk of serious flooding, detrimental impact on drainage or harm to the environment, corresponding to the current power under the EPRs for the regulator to prevent or remedy pollution.

Regulation 22 requires the Environment Agency and the Natural Resources Body for Wales to consult each other before exercising a function relating to a flood risk activity which may affect a flood or coastal erosion risk in Wales or England respectively. It also requires the appropriate authority to have regard to the interests of fisheries, including sea fisheries, when exercising a power under the EPRs that relates to a flood risk activity.

Regulations 23 and 24 amend Schedules 2 and 3 respectively to make provision in respect of exempt facilities for flood risk activities. Regulation 25 amends Schedule 5 to the EPRs in order to make provision in respect of the grant, variation and surrender of environmental permits that include flood risk activities (including provision as to fees for the grant of such permits). Regulation 26 adds provision in respect of flood risk activity enforcement notices to Schedule 6 to the EPRs (appeals to the appropriate authority). Regulation 28 amends Schedule 23A to the EPRs in order to exclude the option of accepting an enforcement undertaking in relation to flood risk activities. Regulation 30 repeals certain provisions of the Water Resources Act 1991⁽¹⁸⁾.

Regulations 31 to 34 make transitional and saving provision in respect of existing flood defence consents, outstanding applications for flood defence consents, existing notices and arbitration matters.

Schedule 1 to these Regulations adds a new Part 4 to Schedule 3 to the EPRs (descriptions and conditions for exempt flood risk activities). Schedule 2 makes specific provision for flood risk activities included in environmental permits. This includes definitions, enforcement notices and excluded flood risk activities. Schedule 3 makes consequential amendments to primary and subordinate legislation.
