2017 No. 1035

The Court of Protection Rules 2017

PART 16

DISCLOSURE

Ongoing duty of disclosure

16.4.—(1) Where the court makes an order to give general or specific disclosure under rule 16.2, any party to whom the order applies is under a continuing duty to provide such disclosure as is required by the order until the proceedings are concluded.

(2) If a document to which the duty of disclosure imposed by paragraph (1) extends comes to a party's notice at any time during the proceedings, that party must immediately notify every other party.
