EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Civil Courts Order 2014 (SI 2014/819), which specifies the locations and names of the district registries of the High Court in England and Wales.

The amendments—

- remove references to those places which are served by district registries which will close on the respective dates that these amendments come into force;
- remove references to those corresponding County Court hearing centres which determine the district served by a district registry and which will also close on the above mentioned dates; and
- remove the reference to the Kettering County Court hearing centre which will close on the date that the relevant amendment comes into force.
