The Local Land Charges Rules 2018

Determination by the registrar of particular electronic means of communication, etc

13.—(1) The registrar may determine—

- (a) the particular electronic means of communication which may or must be used for making applications or requisitions, or sending anything to the registrar,
- (b) the circumstances in which a particular electronic means of communication may or must be used (which may be all circumstances, subject to exceptions),
- (c) the form of any applications or requisitions made using electronic means of communication or anything sent using electronic means of communication, and
- (d) subject to paragraph (2), in addition to the contents required under any other rule for an application or requisition of the type concerned, the contents of any applications or requisitions made using electronic means of communication.

(2) A determination under paragraph (1)(d) may only require information which the registrar considers is necessary or desirable for the purpose of facilitating the processing of the application or requisition as a result of it being made using electronic means of communication.
