7. Policy background

What is being done and why

- 7.1 HM Land Registry is a trading fund operating under the 1993 Order as amended. A trading fund order is merely an accounting device. It enables revenues received for specified functions to be included and treated as part of the trading fund revenues.
- 7.2 Currently, all other HM Land Registry revenues (apart from potential revenue from Local Land Charges and wider activities conferred by the 2015 Act) are part of HM Land Registry’s funded activities.
- 7.3 The 2015 Act contained provisions for (1) the transfer of responsibility for the local land charges register to HM Land Registry, and (2) for HM Land Registry to provide information, register and document services relating to land and other property.
- 7.4 An extension is therefore required to the 1993 Order so as to make the position clear and remove any possible doubt as the extent of the funded operations to expressly include:
- Local Land Charges activity as a public task; and
 - Extension of HM Land Registry’s wider powers.

7.5 The purpose of the Land Registry Trading Fund (Extension and Amendment) Order 2018 (2018 Order) is to ensure that revenues from Local Land Charges and wider activities also form part of the funded activities.

7.6 The 2018 Order has been agreed with HM Treasury.

Consolidation

7.7 The 2018 Order does not amend other instruments.

8. Consultation outcome

8.1 Trading funds are a means of financing the revenue-generating operations of a government department. The 2018 Order will not affect the costs incurred by business. In these circumstances it has not been thought necessary to undertake consultation.

9. Guidance

9.1 No guidance or publicity is required as it is a government accounting device.

10. Impact

10.1 There is no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.

10.2 There is no impact on the public sector.

10.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

11. Regulating small business

11.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

12. Monitoring & review

12.1 The Instrument does not make or amend regulatory provisions relating to business activity therefore a review provision is not appropriate.
