7. Policy background

What is being done and why

- 7.1 This Arrangement replaces the International Tax Enforcement (Bermuda) Order 2008 No.1789 to include automatic exchange of information.
- 7.2 More generally, Tax Information Exchange Arrangements (TIEAs) assist in improving the efficiency of tax information exchange and help to ensure that the international consensus on fiscal transparency and exchange of information is met. All of the UK's recent Tax Information Exchange Arrangements broadly follow the approach adopted in the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development's ("OECD") Model Agreement on Exchange of Information on Tax Matters. The Arrangements contained in the Schedule to the Order continues that approach.

Consolidation

7.3 Not applicable.

8. Consultation outcome

8.1 HMRC regularly consults with external interested parties, including business representatives, about the effectiveness of existing arrangements for information exchange, as well as new needs.

9. Guidance

9.1 General guidance can be found on the HMRC pages of the gov.uk website at:

<http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/manuals/intmanual/INTM156000.htm>

10. Impact

10.1 The impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies is negligible.

10.2 There is no impact on the public sector. HMRC already operates the terms of many similar agreements currently in force.

10.3 A Tax Information and Impact Note has not been produced as Tax Information Exchange Arrangements (TIEAs) impose no obligations on taxpayers.

11. Regulating small business

11.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

12. Monitoring & review

12.1 There are no specific plans to review this Statutory Instrument. However, both Governments will keep the Arrangements scheduled to the Order under consideration to ensure that they continue to meet the policy objectives set out above in Section 7.
