(b) the applicant does not provide a substantive response to the notice before the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (4)(d).

(2) Unless paragraph (3) applies, where notice has been given under paragraph (1)(a), the application for planning permission must not be determined until the period given in the notice, in accordance with paragraph (4)(d) for a substantive response to be received has expired.

(3) An application for planning permission may be determined before the period given in the notice in accordance with paragraph (4)(d) has expired if, before that expiry, the local planning authority or, as the case may be, the Secretary of State receives—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 100ZA of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (the 1990 Act), which was inserted by section 14 of the Neighbourhood Planning Act 2017, provides that planning permission for the development of land may not be granted subject to a pre-commencement condition (as defined in section 100ZA(8) of the 1990 Act) without the written agreement of the applicant to the terms of the condition. This requirement is subject to such exclusions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State (see section 100ZA(6)).

Regulation 2 provides that planning permission may be granted subject to a pre-commencement condition without the applicant's written agreement if the applicant has been notified of the intention to impose a pre-commencement condition and has not responded by the date specified in the notice.

The provisions made in these Regulations apply only to conditions on a grant or modification of planning permission granted or modified after the coming into force of these Regulations.
