

SCHEDULE

Article 8

1.—(1) The Treasury may, in writing, request a person to provide information or produce documentation to them which they may reasonably need for the purpose of ascertaining whether an offence has been committed under this Order.

(2) The request may be made by the Treasury or by a person authorised by the Treasury.

(3) Any person to whom a request is made under sub-paragraph (1) must comply with it within 14 days and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

2. A relevant institution must disclose to the Treasury information as soon as practicable if the conditions in paragraph 3 are satisfied.

3.—(1) The conditions are that—

(a) the relevant institution knows or suspects, or has grounds for knowing or suspecting, that a specified person—

(i) is or has been a customer of the institution at any time since this Order came into force, or

(ii) is a person with whom it has dealings in the course of its business or has had such dealings at any time since this Order came into force;

(b) the information—

(i) on which the knowledge or suspicion of the relevant institution required to disclose is based, or

(ii) which gives grounds for the knowledge or suspicion, came to the relevant institution in the course of a business in the regulated sector.

(2) For the purpose of this paragraph, Schedule 3A to the Terrorism Act 2000^{M1} is to have effect for the purpose of determining what is a business in the regulated sector.

M1 2000 c.11. Schedule 3A was inserted by paragraph 5(6) of Schedule 2 to the Anti-terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001 c.24.

4. Disclosure of information in accordance with this Schedule is not to be taken to breach any restrictions on the disclosure of information (however imposed).

5.—(1) This Schedule does not require any person to provide information or produce documentation which is privileged.

(2) Information and documentation is privileged if the person asked to provide or produce it would be entitled to refuse to do so on grounds of legal professional privilege in proceedings in the High Court or (in Scotland) on grounds of confidentiality of communications in proceedings in the Court of Session.

(3) But information or documentation held with the intention of furthering a criminal purpose is not privileged.

6. A person (“P”) who—

(a) fails without reasonable excuse to provide information, or to produce a document, in response to a requirement in this Schedule;
