EXITING THE EUROPEAN UNION
ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Electronic Communications and Wireless Telegraphy
(Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019

Made - - - - - 12th February 2019

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1

The Secretary of State makes these Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21(b) of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018(a).

In accordance with paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 7 to that Act, a draft of this instrument has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Electronic Communications and Wireless Telegraphy (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019.

(2) These Regulations come into force on exit day.

Amendments of primary legislation

2. Schedule 1 contains amendments of primary legislation.

Amendments of subordinate legislation

3. Schedule 2 contains amendments of subordinate legislation.

Amendments of retained direct EU legislation

4. Schedule 3 contains amendments of retained direct EU legislation.

Power to alter standards relating to eCall service

5.—(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument make provision to replace the standards that are for the time being referred to in Articles 2(j) and (k), 3(1) and (4) and 4 of the eCall Regulation.

(2) Regulations under paragraph (1) may amend the eCall Regulation.

(3) Regulations under paragraph (1)—

- (a) may make different provision for different purposes, and
- (b) may contain transitional provisions and savings.

(4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under paragraph (1) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(5) In this regulation “the eCall Regulation” means Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 305/2013 of 26 November 2012 supplementing Directive 2010/40/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to the harmonised provision for an interoperable EU-wide eCall.

“Functional separation conditions: matters to be considered by OFCOM

89B.—(1) This section applies where OFCOM propose to apply a functional separation condition to a person.

(2) OFCOM must consider the expected impact of the condition on—

- (a) OFCOM;
- (b) the person on whom the condition is to be imposed;
- (c) the staff of the entity to which activities are to be transferred;
- (d) the electronic communications sector as a whole;
- (e) incentives to invest in the electronic communications sector, particularly with regard to the need to ensure social and territorial cohesion;
- (f) competition in the services market affected by the condition; and
- (g) other persons who in OFCOM’s opinion are likely to be affected by the condition, including, in particular, consumers.

(3) OFCOM must also consider—

- (a) evidence relevant to the conclusions mentioned in section 89A(1)(c) and (d);
- (b) whether there is little or no prospect of effective and sustainable infrastructure based competition within a reasonable timeframe;
- (c) whether a functional separation condition would be the most effective means of addressing important and persisting competition problems or market failures identified by OFCOM; and
- (d) the impact that the obligations contained in the condition are likely to have on SMP services conditions set in relation to the services markets which, in OFCOM’s opinion, will be affected by the proposed condition.”

35.—(1) Section 105B (requirement to notify OFCOM of security breach) is amended as follows.

- (2) In subsection (3)—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular under sections 8(2)(a), 8(2)(c), 8(2)(d), 8(2)(f) and 8(2)(g)) arising from the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union.

These Regulations make amendments to legislation in the field of electronic communications and, in particular, amend legislation relating to the implementation in the UK of the EU framework for electronic communications and wireless telegraphy. Schedule 1 amends primary legislation, Schedule 2 amends subordinate legislation, and Schedule 3 amends or revokes retained direct EU legislation.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
