(3) Such an application must also—

- (a) be made in such manner, and
- (b) contain, or be accompanied by, such other information, as the FCA may direct.

Assessment of whether an advance application is complete

25. The FCA must, before the end of a period of 20 working days beginning with the day of receipt—

- (a) if it considers that an advance application complies with regulation 24(2) and the directions (if any) under regulation 24(3), confirm in writing to the applicant that the application is complete;

Determination of an advance application

(2) The first step is that the FCA must consider the application based on compliance with the conditions for the issuing of credit ratings set out in the CRA Regulation.

(3) The second step is that the FCA must decide whether the applicant should be registered as a credit rating agency or whether the advance application for registration should be rejected.

(4) The third step is that the FCA must notify the applicant of its decision, and the reasons therefor.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the relevant period is 45 working days beginning with the day on which the FCA confirms that an application is complete.

(6) The FCA may extend the relevant period by 15 working days, in particular where the application—

Effect of determining an advance application whichever is later, as if it were a decision to register or refuse registration adopted in accordance with Article 16 of the CRA Regulation (notwithstanding provision in Chapter 1 of Title 3 of that Regulation in respect of when a decision has effect).
