PART 4

Temporary Designation Regime

Interpretation

13. In this Part—

“designating authority” has the same meaning as in the 1999 Regulations;

“Settlement Finality Directive” means Directive 98/26/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19 May 1998 on settlement finality in payment and securities settlement systems ^{M29} as it has effect in EU law as amended from time to time;

“system” has the same meaning as in the 1999 Regulations;

“temporary designation” in respect of a system means that such system is taken to be the subject of a designation order under regulation 4(1) of the 1999 Regulations;

“temporary designation period” means the period determined by regulation 18.

Status: This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: The Financial Markets and Insolvency (Amendment and Transitional Provision) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 December 2023.

17.—(1) A temporarily designated system ceases to be a temporarily designated system where any of the following conditions are met.

[^{F12}(2) The first condition is that—

- (a) P has not submitted an application under regulation 3(1) of the 1999 Regulations by the end of the period of 6 months beginning on the day after IP completion day; and
- (b) a period of 2 years and 6 months has passed since IP completion day.]

(3) The second condition is that the temporarily designated system ceases to be specified as included within the scope of the Settlement Finality Directive in accordance with article 10 of that Directive.

(4) The third condition is that P has submitted an application to the designating authority under regulation 3(1) of the 1999 Regulations and—

- (a) withdraws its application; or
- (b) the application is determined by the designating authority.

(5) The fourth condition is that the Bank of England directs that the system is to cease to be a temporarily designated system.

(6) A direction may only be given under paragraph (5) where—

- (a) the Bank of England considers that there would otherwise be an adverse effect on financial stability in the United Kingdom;
- (b) P has expressly renounced the temporary designation; or
- (c) P has submitted an application to the designating authority under regulation 3(1) of the 1999 Regulations, and has made false statements in relation to the application or has sought to obtain designation by any other irregular means.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers in section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c.16), in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular the deficiencies under paragraphs (b), (c), (e) and (g) of section 8(2) of the Act) arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. These Regulations are also made in exercise of the powers in section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c.68).

These Regulations make amendments to legislation in the field of financial services. Part 2 amends primary legislation. Part 3 amends subordinate legislation. Part 4 introduces a temporary designation regime. Part 5 saves designations and other decisions of a designating authority that are in effect immediately before exit day.

An impact assessment of the effect that this instrument, and other instruments made by HM Treasury under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 at or about the same time, will have on the costs of business, the voluntary sector and the public sector will be available from HM Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ and will be published alongside this instrument at www.legislation.gov.uk.
