The Trade Remedies (Dumping and Subsidisation) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019

PART 6

Initiation and conduct of an investigation

CHAPTER 4

Consultation and termination of an investigation

Consultation in a subsidisation investigation

63. The TRA must not make a provisional affirmative or final affirmative determination in a subsidisation investigation unless it has given the government of the relevant foreign country or territory reasonable opportunity for consultation.

Termination

64.—(1) The TRA must terminate an investigation where, at any stage during the investigation, it determines that—

- (a) the margin of dumping or the amount of subsidy is minimal;
- (b) the volume of dumped goods or subsidised imports is negligible; or
- (c) the injury is negligible.

(2) The TRA may, where it considers it appropriate, terminate an investigation on the request of the applicant UK industry.

(3) Where the TRA rejects a request referred to in paragraph (2), it must—

- (a) publish a notice of its determination setting out the reasons for its determination; and
- (b) notify interested parties and contributors.

(4) Where the TRA terminates an investigation under this regulation, it must—

- (a) publish a notice of its determination in accordance with paragraph 65(8); and
- (b) notify interested parties and contributors.
