the NAFO Regulatory Area on vulnerable marine ecosystems. A fisheries administration must only authorise bottom fishing activities in cases where the assessment concludes that such activities are not likely to have significant adverse impacts on vulnerable marine ecosystems.

For the purposes of the implementation of the assessment, a fisheries administration must rely on the best scientific and technical information available concerning the location of vulnerable marine ecosystems in the areas in which their fishing vessels intend to operate. That information must include, where available, scientific data on the basis of which the likelihood of occurrence of such ecosystems can be estimated.

The evaluation of the risk of significant adverse impacts on vulnerable marine ecosystems carried out under the assessment must take into account, as appropriate, differing conditions prevailing in new bottom fishing areas and existing bottom fishing areas.

The submission must include a description of the mitigation measures intended to prevent significant adverse impacts on vulnerable marine ecosystems.”; and

(c) for paragraph 5 substitute—

“5. A fisheries administration must submit the Exploratory Fisheries Protocol referred to in paragraph 2 and the assessment referred to in paragraph 4 to the NAFO Secretariat. 1. Using relevant VMS records or, if VMS records are not available, other relevant verifiable information, a fisheries administration must seek to establish the locations of the fishing activities of vessels catching more than 10 tonnes each calendar year to which it has granted deep-sea fishing authorisations.

2. On the basis of the information referred to in paragraph 1, as well as on the basis of the best available scientific and technical information, a fisheries administration may, by regulations, determine the existing deep-sea fishing areas.”.

(3) In Article 8—

(a) for paragraph 5 substitute—

“5. By way of derogation from paragraph 2, a fisheries administration may, by regulations, authorise exploratory fisheries in locations outside the existing deep-sea fishing areas provided that—

(a) an impact assessment conducted in accordance with the standards set out in the 2008 FAO International Guidelines for the management of Deep-Sea Fisheries in the High Seas has been produced and, having assessed that impact assessment, the fisheries administration is satisfied it is appropriate to authorise the exploratory fishery in question;

(b) the fisheries administration has obtained advice from a scientific advisory body and, having assessed that advice, the fisheries administration is satisfied it is appropriate to authorise the exploratory fishery in question; and

(c) the authorisation is subject to appropriate mitigation measures to prevent an encounter with or effectively protect VMEs.”;

(b) in paragraph 6 for the words from “The Commission, after” to “the Commission may” substitute “Regulations made under paragraph 5 may”;

(c) in paragraph 7 for “paragraph 6” substitute “paragraphs 5 and 6”; and

(d) in paragraph 8 for the words from “On the basis” to “by means of implementing acts,” substitute “A fisheries administration may, by regulations, adjust”.

(4) In Article 9 for paragraphs 6 and 7 substitute—

“6. On the basis of—

(a) the best scientific and technical information available;

- (b) an assessment of areas where VMEs are known to occur or likely to occur, carried out by a competent scientific advisory body; and
- (c) any assessments and identifications carried out by a fisheries administration, a fisheries administration may, by regulations, establish a list of areas where VMEs are known to occur or are likely to occur.

6A. A fisheries administration must review any regulations made under paragraph 6 annually on the basis of advice received from a competent scientific advisory body and, where appropriate, amend the list by regulations. The fisheries administration may remove an area from the list provided that it determines, on the basis of an impact assessment and after consulting the competent scientific advisory body, that there is sufficient evidence to indicate that VMEs are not present, or that appropriate conservation and management measures have been adopted which ensure that significant adverse impacts on VMEs in that area are prevented.

7. A fisheries administration may review, on the basis of the best available scientific information, the VME indicators and may, by regulations, amend the list included in Annex 3.”.

(5) For Article 18 substitute—

“Article 18

Regulations

1. Regulations made by the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers under this Regulation are to be made by statutory instrument.

2. For regulations made under this Regulation by the Scottish Ministers, see section 27 of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010(35).

3. Any power of the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs to make regulations under this Regulation is exercisable by statutory rule for the purposes of the Statutory Rules (Northern Ireland) Order 1979(36).

4. A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Secretary of State under this Regulation is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

5. A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Welsh Ministers under this Regulation is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the National Assembly for Wales.

6. Regulations made by the Scottish Ministers under this Regulation are subject to the negative procedure (see section 28 of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010).

7. Regulations made by the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs under this Regulation are subject to negative resolution within the meaning of section 41(6) of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954(37) as if they were a statutory instrument within the meaning of that Act.

8. Such regulations may—

(35) 2010 asp 10.

(36) S.I. 1979/1573 (N.I. 12).

(37) 1954 c. 33 (N.I.). Section 41(6) was amended by S.I. 1999/663.

- (a) contain consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional or saving provision (including provision amending, repealing or revoking enactments (which has the meaning given by section 20(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018(38));
- (b) make different provision for different purposes.”.

AMENDMENT OF THE EUROPEAN MARITIME AND FISHERIES FUND REGULATION

Regulation (EU) No 508/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the European Maritime and Fisheries Fund

38.—(1) Regulation \(EU\) No 508/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the European Maritime and Fisheries Fund is amended as follows.

(2) For Article 20 substitute—

“Article 20

Amendment of the operational programme

1. In accordance with Article 30(4) of Regulation \(EU\) No 1303/2013, the procedure for amendment of the operational programme is as follows.

2. The Secretary of State may, in accordance with Article 49(3) of Regulation \(EU\) No 1303/2013, submit a proposal for amendment of the operational programme to the monitoring committee for consultation.

3. Before submitting a proposal to the monitoring committee under paragraph 2, the Secretary of State must—

- (a) consult the Marine Management Organisation; and
- (b) obtain the consent of—
  - (i) the Welsh Ministers,
  - (ii) the Scottish Ministers, and
  - (iii) in Northern Ireland, the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs.

4. The Secretary of State may, following completion of the consultation and consent requirements mentioned in paragraphs 2 and 3, make the amendment.

5. The Secretary of State must publish any amended version of the operational programme together with a notice of the date on which any amendments take effect.

6. In this Article, “monitoring committee” means the monitoring committee referred to in Article 47 of Regulation \(EU\) No 1303/2013.”.

(3) In Article 21 for paragraph 2 substitute—

“2. Subject to paragraph 3, the Secretary of State may amend the work plan referred to in paragraph 1 provided that the amended version of the work plan continues to comply with the requirements of Article 6 of Regulation \(EU\) 2017/1004.

3. Where, in the circumstances described in paragraph 4, the exercise of the power to amend the work plan under paragraph 2 would be outside the jurisdiction of the Secretary of State under Article 1(7) of Regulation \(EU\) 1380/2013, before amending the work plan the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of—

- (a) the Scottish Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(3) of Regulation \(EU\) 1380/2013 in the circumstances described in paragraph 4;
- (b) the Welsh Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(4) of Regulation \(EU\) 1380/2013 in the circumstances described in paragraph 4;

4. The circumstances referred to in paragraph 3 are circumstances where the power in paragraph 4 is treated as a power to amend the work plan by regulations which is exercisable by “a fisheries administration” instead of a power exercisable by the Secretary of State.

5. The Secretary of State must publish any amended version of the work plan together with a notice of the date on which any amendments take effect.”.

CHAPTER 9

AMENDMENT OF THE TECHNICAL CONSERVATION REGULATION

Council Regulation (EC) No 850/98 for the conservation of fishery resources through technical measures for the protection of juveniles of marine organisms

39.—(1) Council Regulation (EC) No 850/98 for the protection of fishery resources through technical measures for the protection of juveniles of marine organisms is amended as follows.

(2) In Article 7(5) for “under the conditions laid down in Article 46” substitute “by regulations made under Article 46”.

(3) In Article 29d—

(a) in paragraph 7 for the final subparagraph substitute—

“A fisheries administration may, by regulations, determine which gears are to be considered to have equivalent high selectivity for the purpose of point (a).”; and

(b) for paragraph 10 substitute—

“10. At least every two years following exit day, a fisheries administration must assess the characteristics of gears specified in paragraph 9 and obtain scientific advice on their appropriateness. If, following such advice, a fisheries administration considers the characteristics of any gears specified in paragraph 9 are no longer appropriate, it may, by regulations, amend paragraph 9.”.

(4) In Article 29h(2)—

(a) for “a Union legal act” substitute “regulations made by a fisheries administration”;

(b) for “Union vessels” substitute “United Kingdom vessels”;

(c) for “their respective Member State” substitute “a fisheries administration”; and

(d) omit “to the Commission”.

(5) For Article 45 substitute—

“Article 45

1. Where the conservation of stocks of marine organisms calls for immediate action, a fisheries administration may, by regulations, adopt any measures necessary in addition to or by way of derogation from this Regulation
  2. Subject to paragraph 3, where the conservation of stocks of marine organisms calls for immediate action, the Secretary of State may, by regulations, adopt any measures necessary in addition to or by way of derogation from this Regulation.
  3. Where the exercise of the power to make regulations under paragraph 1 would be outside the jurisdiction of the Secretary of State under Article 1(7) of Regulation \(EU\) No 1380/2013, before making such regulations under the power in paragraph 2 the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of—
    - (a) the Scottish Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(3) of that Regulation;

    - (c) the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, in Northern Ireland, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within its jurisdiction under Article 1(5) of that Regulation.
  4. Where the conservation of certain species or fishing grounds is seriously threatened, and where any delay would result in damage which would be difficult to repair, a fisheries administration may take appropriate conservation measures.”
- (6) For Article 46 substitute—

“Article 46

1. A fisheries administration may, by regulations, take measures for the conservation and management of stocks which—
  - (a) in the case of strictly local stocks which are of interest solely to the United Kingdom, depart from the measures laid down in this Regulation; or
  - (b) in the case of shared stocks, comprise conditions or detailed arrangements designed to limit catches by technical measures supplementing or going beyond the minimum requirements laid down in this Regulation.
2. Subject to paragraph 3, the Secretary of State may, by regulations, take measures for the conservation and management of stocks which—
  - (a) in the case of strictly local stocks which are of interest solely to the United Kingdom, depart from the measures laid down in this Regulation; or
  - (b) in the case of shared stocks, comprise conditions or detailed arrangements designed to limit catches by technical measures supplementing or going beyond the minimum requirements laid down in this Regulation.
3. Where the exercise of the power to make regulations under paragraph 1 would be outside the jurisdiction of the Secretary of State under Article 1(7) of Regulation \(EU\) No 1380/2013, before making such regulations under the power in paragraph 2 the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of—
  - (a) the Scottish Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(3) of that Regulation;

- (b) the Welsh Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(4) of that Regulation;
  - (c) the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, in Northern Ireland, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within its jurisdiction under Article 1(5) of that Regulation.
4. Before making any regulations under this Article, a fisheries administration must consult—
- (a) such bodies or persons as appear to the fisheries administration to be representative of the interests likely to be substantially affected by the regulations;
  - (b) such other bodies or persons as the fisheries administration may consider appropriate.”.
- (7) For Articles 48 and 48a substitute—

“Article 48

Implementation

1. A fisheries administration may make regulations specifying detailed rules for the implementation of this Regulation including, in particular, the rules described in paragraph 4
2. Subject to paragraph 3, the Secretary of State may make regulations specifying detailed rules for the implementation of this Regulation including, in particular, the rules described in paragraph 4
3. Where the exercise of the power to make regulations under paragraph 1 would be outside the jurisdiction of the Secretary of State under Article 1(7) of Regulation \(EU\) No 1380/2013, before making such regulations under the power in paragraph 2 the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(3) of that Regulation;
  - (b) the Welsh Ministers, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within their jurisdiction under Article 1(4) of that Regulation;
  - (c) the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, in Northern Ireland, to the extent that the exercise of the power would be within its jurisdiction under Article 1(5) of that Regulation.
4. The rules referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 are—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) (in particular under section 8(2)(a), (b), (c), (d) and (g)) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union.

These Regulations make amendments to retained direct EU legislation in the fields of the common fisheries policy of the European Union and alien and locally absent species in aquaculture. They also make a minor amendment to another Statutory Instrument.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
