EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 161A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) requires a court, when dealing with a person for one or more offences, to order that person to pay a surcharge. The amount of the surcharge that is payable in particular circumstances is set out in the Schedule to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (Surcharge) Order 2012 (S.I. 2012/1696) (“the 2012 Order”). Article 2(b) of this Order substitutes the Schedule to the 2012 Order to provide for an increase in those amounts. Article 2(a) amends article 4 of the 2012 Order to clarify that article 4 also applies in respect of an offence or offences committed when a person was aged 18.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Article 3 provides that the amendments made by this Order to the 2012 Order do not apply where a court deals with a person for a single offence committed before 28th June 2019 or where it deals with a person for more than one offence and at least one of those offences was committed before that date. A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
