EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations further implement obligations in Directive 2015/2366/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25th November 2015 on payment services in the internal market, amending Directives 2002/65/EC, 2009/110/EC and 2013/36/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010, and repealing Directive 2007/64/EC (OJ L 337 23.12.2015, p.35). This Directive provides for regulation of payment services in the internal market.

Part 2 of these Regulations provides for the amendment of the Electronic Money Regulations 2011 (S.I. 2011/99) to apply specified provisions in the Banking Act 2009 (c.1) to certain types of electronic money institution (authorised electronic money institutions and small electronic money institutions), modifying those provisions to allow them to apply appropriately for those institutions. The application of the Banking Act provisions will allow HM Treasury to make regulations which alter existing insolvency procedures insofar as they apply to authorised electronic money institutions and small electronic money institutions. The Treasury may modify insolvency law as it applies to those institutions, or alternatively, set up a new insolvency scheme.

Part 3 of these Regulations provides for the amendment of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/752) to apply specified provisions in the Banking Act 2009 to certain types of payment institution (authorised payment institutions and small payment institutions), modifying those provisions to allow them to apply appropriately for those institutions. The application of the Banking Act provisions will allow HM Treasury to make regulations which alter existing insolvency procedures insofar as they apply to authorised payment institutions and small payment institutions. The Treasury may modify insolvency law as it applies to those institutions, or alternatively, set up a new insolvency scheme.
