Guidance for the holder of this certificate: Please ensure that anyone who sells, lets on hire, gives or lends you a firearm and/or ammunition reads these notes.

Guidance to anybody who sells, lets on hire, gives or lends firearms and/or ammunition to the holder of this certificate:

1. You must complete each column of Table 1 Firearms or Table 2 Ammunition.
2. If you are a registered firearms dealer or a person who is entitled to possess a firearm without a certificate, you must inform the Chief Officer of Police who issued this certificate within 7 days about the transaction. Please could you do this by permitted electronic means. You should provide a description of the firearm (including its identification number, if any). You must also state whether the firearm was sold, let on hire, given or lent, and give the name and address of the holder of this certificate.
3. When you inform the Chief Officer of Police about the transaction in 2 above, you should also provide the unique identifying mark as applied to the firearm's frame or receiver and, where different, the unique identifying mark as applied to each relevant component part.
4. Any circumstances attending the transaction which appear to require investigation must be reported within 48 hours to the Chief Officer of Police who granted this certificate.
5. If you are selling a firearm and/or ammunition which will be sent or posted to another dealer for the buyer to collect in person, you should complete the table(s) and notify the police of the transaction concerning the firearm (as in 2 above). The dealer who actually hands over the firearm and/or ammunition should not complete the table(s) or notify the police (except in circumstances which may require police investigation as above).

Notes

- A Under section 32 of the Firearms (Amendment) Act 1997 where a person sells, lets on hire, lends or gives firearms and/or ammunition to which section 1 applies to another person who is not a registered firearms dealer or a person who is entitled to purchase or acquire the firearms and/or ammunition without holding a certificate -
    - (i) the person receiving the firearms and/or ammunition must produce the certificate or permit entitling him/her to purchase or acquire the firearms and/or ammunition being transferred;
    - (ii) the person selling, letting on hire, lending or giving the firearms and/or ammunition must comply with any instructions in the certificate or permit produced; and
    - (iii) the final handing-over of firearms and/or ammunition must take place in person.
  - B Under section 33 of the Firearms (Amendment) Act 1997, where a person transfers a firearm to any other person, including lending it, selling it, hiring it out or making a gift of it, he/she shall within seven days of the transfer give to the Chief Officer of Police who granted his/her certificate or permit a notice
    - (i) containing a description of the firearm in question (giving its identification number if any); and,
    - (ii) stating the nature of the transaction and the name and address of the other party.
  - C Under Section 34 of the Firearms (Amendment) Act 1997, where you
    - (i) deactivate a firearm or have it deactivated by someone else; or
    - (ii) destroy a firearm, lose a firearm or section 1 ammunition; or
    - (iii) have firearms or ammunition stolen,
 you must notify the Chief Officer of Police who issued the certificate. This requirement applies even if the sale, loss, etc. has happened outside Great Britain.
- It is an offence for a person to fail to comply with the requirements at A - C.
- D The entries for boxes A - E in Tables 1 and 2 relate to transactions with the holder of this certificate. The seller must be satisfied that the transaction will not place the holder of this certificate in possession of firearms and ammunition in excess of the amount authorised by this certificate.
  - E Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs will notify the Chief Officer of Police who issued this certificate of any firearm which is imported into Great Britain on the authority of this certificate.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules make amendments to the Firearms Rules 1998 (S.I. 1998/1941).

Rule 2(2) and (3) amends the Firearms Rules 1998 in order to clarify the condition imposed on the grant or renewal of a firearm or shotgun certificate, requiring the holder of the certificate to inform the chief officer of police by whom the certificate was granted as soon as reasonably practicable but in any event within seven days, of the theft, loss, or destruction in Great Britain of the certificate, and of the theft, loss, deactivation or destruction in Great Britain of any firearm, shotgun or ammunition to which the certificate relates. The addition of the words “in any event” provide clarity that the notification must be made as soon as reasonably practicable, with seven days being the maximum period for notification.

Rule 2(4) and (5) replaces the existing firearm and shotgun certificates. The purpose of making these changes is to ensure that additional information is recorded on the certificate about the weapons listed therein. This includes the unique identifying mark as applied to the weapon’s frame or receiver and, where different, the unique identifying mark as applied to each relevant component part. The changes also reflect the amendment made to the condition in rule 2(2) and (3) and update the guidance and note sections of certificates.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sectors is foreseen.
