BROADCASTING

The Legislative Reform (Renewal of National Radio Multiplex Licences) Order 2022

Made - - - - 7th April 2022
Coming into force - - 8th April 2022

The Secretary of State makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by section 1 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006⁽¹⁾.

For the purposes of section 3(1) of that Act, the Secretary of State considers, where relevant, that the conditions in section 3(2) of that Act are satisfied.

The Secretary of State has consulted in accordance with section 13(1) of that Act⁽²⁾.

The Secretary of State has laid a draft Order and an explanatory document before Parliament in accordance with section 14 of that Act.

Pursuant to section 15 of that Act, the affirmative resolution procedure (within the meaning of section 17 of that Act) applies in relation to the making of this Order.

In accordance with section 17(2) of that Act, the draft has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament after the expiry of the 40-day period⁽³⁾ referred to in that provision.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under section 1 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006 (c. 51).

National radio multiplex licences granted under Part 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1996 (c. 55) are renewable on one occasion in accordance with section 58 of that Act. Article 3 of this Order amends section 58: to allow for a renewal of a national radio multiplex licence for a period ending on 31st December 2035; to allow an application for a renewal to be made up to the ‘relevant date’ i.e. the date by which Ofcom would need to publish a notice under section 46 of that Act stating that they propose to grant a fresh licence to provide the service formerly provided under the licence (if it expired and was not renewed); and to allow Ofcom to determine the ‘relevant date’ less than one year before that date.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary sector or public sector is foreseen.
