EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 14Z31 of the National Health Service Act 2006 (c. 41) (“the NHS Act 2006”) provides that NHS England must, from time to time, publish rules for determining the group of people for whom an integrated care board has core responsibility. Section 14Z31(2) of that Act provides that the rules must ensure that every person who is provided with NHS primary medical services and everyone usually resident in England but not provided with NHS primary medical services are allocated to a group. Regulation 2 provides that the following persons are exceptions to this requirement—

- a person usually resident in Northern Ireland who is registered with a provider in England of NHS primary medical services;
- a person usually resident in Scotland who is registered with a provider in England of NHS primary medical services;
- a person usually resident in Wales who is registered with a provider in England of NHS primary medical services.
