EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Adoption Support Services Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/691) (“ASSR”) and the Adoption Support Agencies (England) and Adoption Agencies (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/2720) (“ASA Amendment Regulations 2005”).

Regulation 2 amends regulation 4 of the ASA Amendment Regulations 2005, which provides exceptions from the definition of adoption support agencies (“ASAs”) under section 8 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 (“2002 Act”). ASAs must register with His Majesty’s Chief Inspector of Education, Children’s Services and Skills (“HMCI”) under section 11 Care Standards Act 2000. Regulation 2(2) excepts any person working under a contract of services (including those working in a partnership) with a registered ASA or an Adoption Agency from being an ASA. Regulation 2(3) inserts a new exception to Regulation 4 of the ASA Amendment Regulations 2005 so that a person is not an ASA merely because they provide counselling in relation to adoption to persons who have attained the age of 18.

Section 3(4) of the 2002 Act permits a local authority to make arrangements for others to provide facilities on behalf of the authority in respect of adoption. Regulation 3 amends regulation 5 of the ASSR in consequence of the amendments made by regulation 2 of this Instrument and for the purposes of section 3(4) of the 2002 Act, so that anyone falling within the exceptions hereby set out in regulation 2 may provide adoption support services on behalf of a local authority.
