2. Purpose of the instrument

It also removes employment by the Commission for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland.
- 2.2 The Principal Civil Service Pension Scheme, the Civil Service Additional Voluntary Contribution Scheme, the Civil Service Compensation Scheme and the Civil Service Injury Benefits Scheme are schemes that have been made under section 1 of the Act.

“In my view the provisions of the Superannuation (Admission to Schedule 1 to the Superannuation Act 1972) Order 2023 are compatible with the Convention rights.”

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 Section 1 of the Act gives to the Minister for the Civil Service (the “Minister”) powers to make, maintain and administer schemes to provide pensions, allowances or gratuities to the civil servants and other persons whose employments or offices are listed in Schedule 1 to the Act. The Act further permits the Minister to add employments or offices to Schedule 1, conditional on the employment or office being paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, the Consolidated Fund, the Scottish Consolidated Fund or a fund specified in the order that is a fund established by or under an Act of Parliament.

- 6.2 Subject to transitional arrangements, the Principal Civil Service Pension Scheme closed to new entrants on 1 April 2015, however inclusion in Schedule 1 also means that people serving in those offices and employments are potentially eligible to be members of the Alpha pension scheme established by the Public Service (Civil Servants and Others) Pensions Regulations 2014 made under section 1 of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013.
- 6.3 Schemes that have been made under section 1 of the Act and under section 1 of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 are collectively referred to below as the Civil Service Pension Arrangements (“CSPA”).

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 The bodies added to Schedule 1 to the Act by this instrument wish to join the CSPA rather than run their own pension arrangements. Membership of the CSPA avoids the administration and associated costs of setting up separate arrangements and makes available economies of scale provided by the CSPA. In all cases the bodies will be required to make contributions to the CSPA at a level set to meet the full costs of the accruing superannuation liability associated with their staff. The Cabinet Office ensures that admitted employments or offices are within the public sector and have suitable controls over pay to protect the Civil Superannuation Vote, from which pensions are paid.
- 7.2 The body removed from Schedule 1 to the Act by this instrument has been superseded by an employment and office through a change in legislation. Continued membership for the former body is therefore not appropriate.

8. European Union Withdrawal and Future Relationship

- 8.1 This instrument does not relate to withdrawal from the European Union / trigger the statement requirements under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 The Department has no plans to consolidate the legislation at this time.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 For those bodies and offices that are to be added to Schedule 1 and admitted to the CSPA, consultations were carried out as part of the negotiations with those bodies and offices and their sponsoring Departments during the process of their applications to join the CSPA.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 No guidance has been produced to accompany this instrument, the contents of which are self-explanatory.

12. Impact

- 12.1 There is no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.
- 12.2 The impact on the CSPA will be an increased number of participants in the schemes with an associated increase in costs, however the impact on the public sector as a whole is saving in administration for public sector bodies by enabling them to join existing pension arrangements and benefit from the support provided by Cabinet Office.

12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

13. Regulating small business

13.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

14. Monitoring & review

14.1 Membership of the CSPA and the need for amendments to Schedule 1 of the Act are under constant review.
