EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Order)

This Order appoints a day for certain provisions of the Care Standards Act 2000 (“the Act”) to come into force. The Order applies to Wales.

The Order provides that the following provisions of Part V of the Act shall come into force on 13th November 2000:

- (a) section 72, which establishes an office of the Children’s Commissioner for Wales;
- (b) Schedule 2, which makes provision about certain operational functions of the office such as its status, appointment and remuneration, general powers, accounting and reporting.

The Order provides that the following provisions of Part IV of the Act shall come into force on 1st April 2001 in so far as they relate to the Care Council for Wales (“the Council”):

- (a) section 54(1), (3)-(7), which establishes a body corporate to be known as the Care Council for Wales; provides its general duty; and provides that it shall, in the exercise of its functions, act in accordance with any directions, or under any general guidance, issued by the National Assembly for Wales;
- (b) section 55 which makes provision about the interpretation of Part IV of the Act;
- (c) section 113 (2)-(4) which provides that the Assembly has default powers in relation to the Council;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (d) section 114 which makes provision about Orders in Council made under section 70 of the Act that transfer staff from the Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work to the Council;
- (e) Schedule 1 which makes provision about certain operational functions of the Council such as its status, general powers, membership and appointment, procedure, staff, accounting and reporting.
