Petitions for a referendum

6.—(1) Subject to regulations 7, 8(8) and 19, an authority shall hold a referendum by virtue of this Part where it receives a valid petition (but shall not be required to hold such a referendum where it receives a petition which is not a valid petition).

- (2) A petition may be presented to a local authority—
  - (a) by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting it to the authority's principal office; or
  - (b) by delivering it to the authority's principal office.

Post-announcement and post-direction petitions

7.—(1) In relation to a petition received after an authority has given notice of its intention to hold a referendum and of the date on which that referendum will be held (whether pursuant to this Part, a direction under regulation 18, or section 27 (referendum in case of proposals involving elected mayor)) on proposals which involve a directly elected mayor, nothing in this Part shall require an authority to hold a referendum or to take any steps other than those specified in paragraph (2) and regulation 12.

(2) The steps specified in this paragraph are to secure that the proper officer, as soon as reasonably practicable after the receipt of the petition—

- (a) notifies the National Assembly for Wales and the petition organiser—
    - (i) of the receipt of the petition;
    - (ii) that the petition is a post-announcement petition; and
    - (iii) that the authority propose to take no further action in relation to it;
- and

- (b) notifies the petition organiser that the petition organiser may, within the period of two months beginning with the date of the notice, request the National Assembly for Wales to consider the exercise of any power conferred on it by Part III of these Regulations.

(3) Where—

- (a) a petition is received by an authority—
  - (i) after it has received a direction under regulation 18(1); and
  - (ii) before it has given notice of the date on which the referendum is to be held pursuant to the direction; and
- (b) the constitutional change proposed in the petition is the same as that in relation to which the direction requires the referendum to be held, the authority shall take no further action in relation to the petition and shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, comply with the requirements of paragraph (4).

(4) The authority shall notify the National Assembly for Wales and the petition organiser—

- (a) of the receipt of the petition; and
- (b) that it proposes to take no further action in relation to the petition because it proposes the same constitutional change as that in relation to which the referendum is to be held pursuant to the direction.

(5) Where—

- (a) a petition is received by an authority—
  - (i) after it has received a direction under regulation 18(1); and
  - (ii) before it has given notice of the date on which the referendum is to be held pursuant to the direction; and
- (b) the constitutional change proposed in the petition is not the same as that in relation to which the direction requires the referendum to be held, the authority shall secure that the proper officer determines, in accordance with this Part, whether the petition is a valid petition.

(6) Where the proper officer determines that a petition of the description in paragraph (5) is not a valid petition, the proper officer shall comply with regulation 14(1) but, subject to that—

- (a) the authority shall take no further action in relation to the petition; and
- (b) for the purposes of regulation 21, the date of the direction shall be the date of the proper officer's determination.

(7) For the purposes of paragraphs (3) to (5)—

- (a) in relation to a direction under regulation 18(1) that requires an authority to hold a referendum on a form of executive that includes an elected mayor, a petition received subsequently by that authority in which the form of executive is not specified, shall be treated as proposing the same constitutional change; and

- (b) other constitutional changes shall be treated as the same if they propose executive arrangements under which the executive takes the same form.

Amalgamation of petitions

8.—(1) Where more than one petition relating to the same area has been prepared, those petitions may, at any time before their presentation to the authority, be amalgamated; and those petitions shall then be treated for all other purposes of this Part as a single petition.

(2) Where constituent petitions amalgamated under paragraph (1) do not propose the same constitutional change, the amalgamated petition shall not be entertained by the authority unless it is accompanied by a statement, signed by the petition organiser in relation to the amalgamated petition, that the amalgamated petition is presented with the agreement of the petition organiser of each of the constituent petitions.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4), (5) and (6), where an authority receives more than one petition relating to the same area, the proper officer shall, if satisfied as to their validity in every respect other than that mentioned in regulation 9(1)(a), amalgamate those petitions in accordance with paragraph (7); and those petitions shall then be treated for all other purposes of this Part as a single petition.

(4) The proper officer shall not amalgamate petitions if satisfied that the first petition received by the authority (including constituent petitions amalgamated in accordance with paragraph (1)) contains a number of signatures of local government electors for the authority's area that equals or exceeds the verification number and is, in other respects, a valid petition.

(5) Once an amalgamated petition (amalgamated in accordance with paragraph (3)) contains a number of signatures of local government electors for the authority's area that equals or exceeds the verification number and is, in other respects, a valid petition, the proper officer shall not amalgamate any other petition with that amalgamated petition.

(6) The proper officer

- (a) shall not amalgamate petitions that do not propose the same constitutional change unless the proper officer has obtained in writing the agreement of the petition organiser of each petition that would, after amalgamation, be a constituent petition.
- (b) shall inform each petition organiser whose agreement is required for the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) of the consequence of amalgamation specified in paragraph (10) below.

(7) Petitions shall be amalgamated in the order in which they are received except that, where more than one petition is received on the same day—

- (a) the petition that contains the greatest number of signatures shall be treated as the first to be received;
- (b) the petition that proposes the same constitutional change as that proposed in the petition identified in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) shall be treated as the second to be received; and if there is more than one such petition, those petitions shall be treated as received in sequence, beginning with the petition that contains the greater number of signatures;
- (c) any other petitions shall be treated as received in the following order—
  - (i) the petition that contains the greatest number of signatures;
  - (ii) the petition, if any, that proposes the same constitutional change as the petition identified in accordance with paragraph (i);
  - (iii) the petition that contains the next greatest number of signatures;
  - (iv) the petition, if any, that proposes the same constitutional change as the petition identified in accordance with paragraph (iii);

(v) the petition that contains the next greatest number of signatures; and so on.

(8) Where—

- (a) an authority receives more than one petition on the same day; and
- (b) those petitions each contain a number of signatures of local government electors for the authority's area that equals or exceeds the verification number and are, in other respects, valid petitions; and
- (c) those petitions do not propose the same constitutional change, that authority shall make a determination as to the petition in relation to which it will hold a referendum.

(9) Before making a determination under paragraph (8)—

- (a) the authority shall take into account the outcome of any prior consultation undertaken by that authority in pursuance of sections 25 or 31 or regulations 17 or 19; and
- (b) if the authority considers it necessary, undertake further consultation with the local government electors for, and other interested persons in, the authority's area.

(10) Where an amalgamated petition results from the combination of constituent petitions which do not propose the same constitutional change, the amalgamated petition shall be treated for the purposes of this Part as proposing that the authority should operate executive arrangements under which the proposed form of executive is not specified.

(11) For the purposes of this regulation, constitutional changes shall be treated as the same—

- (a) if they propose executive arrangements under which the executive takes the same form; or
- (b) if the proposed form of executive is not specified.

Validity of petitions

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a petition shall be a valid petition if—

- (a) it is signed (whether before or after the passing of the Act or the coming into force of these Regulations) by not less than the verification number;
- (b) it satisfies the requirements of regulation 10; and
- (c) it is presented to the authority to which it is addressed on a day other than one that falls within a moratorium period.

(2) A petition shall not be invalid by reason only of a failure to satisfy any requirement of regulation 10 if the constitutional change in relation to which the referendum is sought can be ascertained.

(3) Where a person signs a petition but the information referred to in regulation 10(3)(a) is not included, or is not included in a legible form, that person's signature shall be disregarded in determining whether the petition satisfies the requirements of paragraph (1)(a).

(4) If a person signs a petition more than once, that person's second or subsequent signature shall be disregarded in determining whether the petition satisfies the requirements of paragraph (1)(a).

(5) Any signature on a petition which bears a date earlier than 12 months before the petition date shall be disregarded in determining whether the petition satisfies the requirements of paragraph (1)(a).

Formalities of petition

10.—(1) A petition shall on each sheet state—

  - (a) the petition organiser of each of the constituent petitions shall determine the identity of the person (whether or not that person is the petition organiser of any of the constituent petitions) who is to be the petition organiser for the purposes of the amalgamated petition; and
  - (b) the petition organiser of the amalgamated petition shall notify the authority of the petition organiser’s name and full address.

- (2) As soon as reasonably practicable after receipt of a petition, and not later than the end of the notice period, the proper officer shall determine the validity of the petition.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Regulations)

Under Part II of the Local Government Act 2000 (“the Act”), every county and county borough council in Wales (“authority”) is able to make arrangements for the discharge of its functions by executives, which must take one of the forms specified in section 11(2) to (4) of the Act or in regulations under section 11(5).

Where an authority's proposals for an executive under section 25 of the Act involve an elected mayor, they are required by section 27 to hold a referendum before taking steps to implement the proposals.

These Regulations provide for circumstances in which an authority must hold a referendum other than where required to do so under section 27 of the Act.

These Regulations make provision in connection with the holding of a referendum where at least 10 per cent of the local government electors in an authority's area petition the authority for the holding of a referendum on the question of whether the authority should operate executive arrangements which involve an elected mayor. They also enable the National Assembly for Wales, in specified circumstances, to require an authority to hold a referendum on proposals involving any form of executive specified in section 11(2) to (4) of the Act or prescribed in regulations under section 11(5).

Part II of the Regulations deals with petitions for referendums. Regulations 4 and 5 are relevant to the number that is to be used for the purposes of determining whether a petition has the support of at least 10 per cent of the authority's electorate (the "verification number").

The verification number is ascertained annually by reference to the number of electors whose names appear on the electoral register or registers. There are special provisions in relation to petitions submitted between the date of publication of a verification number and 1st April in the year of publication.

Regulation 4 requires an officer appointed for the purpose by the authority to publish the verification number, and enables that person to obtain relevant information from electoral registration officers. The first verification number must be published not later than four weeks after the coming into force of these Regulations and, in subsequent years, within 14 days of 15th February in each year.

Regulation 5 requires the authority to give public notice of the verification number and of the period in relation to which, subject to the special provisions, it is to be used for determining the validity of petitions.

Regulation 6(1) requires an authority to hold a referendum in accordance with Part II of the Regulations if the officer appointed by them for the purpose of verifying petitions is satisfied that a petition received by them is valid. This is subject to exceptions provided for by regulations 7, 8 and 19. The authority is not required to hold such a referendum where that officer is not satisfied as to the validity of a petition. Regulation 6(2) makes provision as to the delivery of petitions.

Regulation 7 makes special provision where a petition ("post-announcement petition") is received after an authority has given notice of its intention to hold a referendum on proposals that include an elected mayor. In these circumstances, the National Assembly for Wales and the organiser of the post-announcement petition are to be notified of the receipt of the post-announcement petition, and of the fact that no further action is intended to be taken in relation to it. The post-announcement petition organiser must also be notified of the date by which such a person may request the National Assembly for Wales' intervention under regulation 18. Further special provision is made where a petition is received after a direction has been given under regulation 18.

Regulation 8 provides for the amalgamation of petitions. Petitions may be amalgamated both by petition organisers before presentation of the petitions to the authority, and by the authority's proper officer after the authority have received the petitions. Petitions may not be amalgamated once the verification number has been reached. Petitions that do not propose the same constitutional change (defined in regulation 8(8)), may not be amalgamated without the agreement of the petition organiser for each of the constituent petitions. Where a petition that specifies a form of executive is amalgamated with a petition in which the form of executive is not specified, the amalgamated petition is to be treated for other purposes of the Regulations as proposing an unspecified form of executive.

Regulations 9 and 10 deal with the validity and content of petitions. A petition must be signed by at least the same number of local government electors for the authority's area as the verification number. A petition is to be treated as valid, notwithstanding a failure to comply with the requirements of regulation 10, so long as the constitutional change in relation to which the referendum is sought can be ascertained. The nature of the constitutional change should be specified in the terms set out in Schedule 1 to the Regulations or in similar terms. Regulation 10 also provides for the identification of the "petition organiser". Where petitions are amalgamated before submission to the authority, the petition organiser in relation to the amalgamated petition is to be determined by the organisers of the constituent petitions.

Regulation 11 provides for the petition organiser to be notified of the “petition date” (defined in regulation 3). The petition organiser and the National Assembly for Wales have to be notified where a second (or subsequent) petition cannot be amalgamated with an earlier petition for a reason other than the invalidity of the earlier petition. The petition organiser of a petition which the authority’s officer has declined to amalgamate may request the National Assembly for Wales’ intervention under regulation 18.

Regulation 12 requires the authority to make petitions available for public inspection.

Regulation 13 specifies the steps that must be taken when the authority’s officer has determined that a petition is valid.

Regulation 14 specifies, in particular, the steps that must be taken when the authority’s officer has determined that a petition is not valid.

Regulation 15 imposes restrictions on the steps that may be taken, and the expenditure that may be incurred, by an authority in connection with petitions.

Subject to certain exceptions, regulation 16 requires the holding of a referendum, following a valid petition, within six months of the petition date or within two months of the coming into force of regulations under section 45 of the Act (relating to the conduct of referendums), whichever is the later.

Regulation 17 requires the authority to draw up and consult on proposals for executive arrangements which include an elected mayor before a referendum is held. The authority must also draw up and consult on an outline of the fall-back proposals that the authority intends to implement if the proposals in the referendum are rejected. In drawing up proposals, an authority is required to have regard to any guidance that may have been issued under section 38 of the Act.

Regulation 18, in Part III, to which Schedule 2 is relevant, prescribes the circumstances in which the National Assembly for Wales may direct an authority to hold a referendum and specifies the matters that may be included in the National Assembly for Wales’ direction.

Regulation 19 specifies the steps to be taken by an authority on receipt of the National Assembly for Wales’ direction. Paragraph (2) of that regulation suspends the effect of the direction where an authority have received their first petition under Part II of the Regulations but have not satisfied themselves as to its validity. If the petition is valid, the authority are required by paragraph (3) to hold a referendum on the form of executive proposed by the petition, and the direction is of no effect. If the petition is invalid, the direction takes effect and the authority are required to hold a referendum in accordance with the terms of the direction. Special provision is made where a petition is received after a direction has been given under regulation 18.

Regulation 20 contains provisions about the contents of the proposals that are to be drawn up by the authority. It also deals with consultation.

Subject to certain exceptions, regulation 21 specifies that a referendum required by a direction from the National Assembly for Wales under regulation 18 shall be held within six months of the date of that direction.

Regulation 22 specifies arrangements for publicising referendums held at the direction of the National Assembly and contains restrictions on the publication by the authority of other information about the direction and its consequences.

Part IV deals with actions to be taken after the holding of a referendum under Part II or in consequence of a direction under Part III.

Where the result of a referendum is to approve the referendum proposals, regulation 23 requires the authority to implement those proposals in accordance with the timetable included in the proposals under regulation 17(3)(a) or regulation 19(1)(c), as the case may be.

Where the result of a referendum is to reject the referendum proposals, regulation 24 requires the authority to draw up detailed fall-back proposals, unless they are already operating alternative arrangements or executive arrangements. Detailed fall-back proposals are to be sent to the National Assembly for Wales. They are to be implemented in accordance with the timetable previously submitted or, where they are based on outline fall-back proposals approved by the National Assembly for Wales under section 28, to a timetable that reflects the need to make regulations under section 11(5) or 32 (as the case may be).

If the authority is already operating executive arrangements or alternative arrangements, regulation 24 requires those arrangements to continue unless and until the authority is authorised or required to operate different arrangements.

Regulation 25 in Part V enables the National Assembly for Wales to take any action that an authority is permitted or required to take under any of Parts II to IV if the authority fail to take that action.
