The High Hedges (Appeals) (Wales) Regulations 2004

Determination of appeals by the National Assembly

6.—(1) When considering an appeal, the National Assembly, or any person appointed by it under section 72(3) of the Act to hear and determine the appeal on its behalf, is entitled to consider any evidence or other matter irrespective of whether such evidence or matter was not, or was not able to be, considered by the relevant authority when it reached the decision to which the appeal relates.

(2) The appellant must establish the ground or grounds of the appeal and, if that person fails to do so, the appeal must be dismissed.
