

SCHEDULE 1

CONSULTATION REQUIREMENTS FOR QUALIFYING LONG TERM AGREEMENTS OTHER THAN THOSE FOR WHICH PUBLIC NOTICE IS REQUIRED

Preparation of landlord's proposals

5.—(1) The landlord shall prepare, in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph, at least two proposals in respect of the relevant matters.

(2) At least one of the proposals must propose that goods or services are provided, or works are carried out (as the case may be), by a person wholly unconnected with the landlord.

(3) Where an estimate has been obtained from a nominated person, the landlord must prepare a proposal based on that estimate.

(4) Each proposal shall contain a statement of the relevant matters.

(5) Each proposal shall contain a statement, as regards each party to the proposed agreement other than the landlord—

(a) of the party's name and address; and

(b) of any connection (apart from the proposed agreement) between the party and the landlord.

(6) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2) and (5)(b), it shall be assumed that there is a connection between a party (as the case may be) and the landlord—

(a) where the landlord is a company, if the party is, or is to be, a director or manager of the company or is a close relative of any such director or manager;

(b) where the landlord is a company, and the party is a partner in a partnership, if any partner in that partnership is, or is to be, a director or manager of the company or is a close relative of any such director or manager;

(c) where both the landlord and the party are companies, if any director or manager of one company is, or is to be, a director or manager of the other company;

(d) where the party is a company, if the landlord is a director or manager of the company or is a close relative of any such director or manager; or

(e) where the party is a company and the landlord is a partner in a partnership, if any partner in that partnership is a director or manager of the company or is a close relative of any such director or manager.

(7) Where, as regards each tenant's unit of occupation and the relevant matters, it is reasonably practicable for the landlord to estimate the relevant contribution attributable to the relevant matters to which the proposed agreement relates, each proposal shall contain a statement of that estimated contribution.

(8) Where—

(a) it is not reasonably practicable for the landlord to make the estimate mentioned in sub-paragraph (7); and

(b) it is reasonably practicable for the landlord to estimate, as regards the building or other premises to which the proposed agreement relates, the total amount of the landlord's expenditure under the proposed agreement, each proposal shall contain a statement of that estimated expenditure.

(9) Where—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(b) it is reasonably practicable for the landlord to ascertain the current unit cost or hourly or daily rate applicable to the relevant matters, each proposal shall contain a statement of that cost or rate.

(10) Where the relevant matters comprise or include the proposed appointment by the landlord of an agent to discharge any of the landlord's obligations to the tenants which relate to the management by the landlord of premises to which the agreement relates, each proposal shall contain a statement—

(a) that the person whose appointment is proposed—

(i) is or, as the case may be, is not, a member of a professional body or trade association;
and

(ii) subscribes or, as the case may be, does not subscribe, to any code of practice or voluntary accreditation scheme relevant to the functions of managing agents; and

(b) if the person is a member of a professional body or trade association, of the name of the body or association.

(11) Each proposal shall contain a statement as to the provisions (if any) for variation of any amount specified in, or to be determined under, the proposed agreement.

(12) Each proposal shall contain a statement of the intended duration of the proposed agreement.

(13) Where observations are made to which (in accordance with paragraph 3) the landlord is required to have regard, each proposal shall contain a statement summarising the observations and setting out the landlord's response to them.
